Higher Education Policy in the Philippines and ASEAN Integration Kolawole Samuel Adeyemo, 2019-09-16 Globalisation has brought a number of regional cooperation collaboration partnership and networking initiatives among different countries The regionalisation of higher education or its initiators have used different terms to define their objectives For Asian higher education this relationship has extended beyond the broader idea of higher education cooperation for instance to include different networks and agreements within region and outside region on matters related to research student mobility and quality assurance among Asian countries and between Asia and other countries that share a similar vision on education This book examines and analyses the status of education policy in the Philippines and more particularly focuses on the issue of the integration of higher education in the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN It further examines ASEAN integration policies and what the Philippines could do to underpin these policies The objective is to better understand the problems of global policy in the context of regionalisation harmonisation and integration from both an ASEAN and a Philippine perspective Prospective mechanisms of ASEAN for upgrading the quality of education provision through student mobility staff exchange regional accreditation and articulation are succinctly argued in this book Methodologically various research designs and methods including a literature review as well as an empirical data and secondary data analysis were used ASEAN leaders higher education researchers and policymakers may find the results discussed in this book useful

Brunei - History, Islam, Society and Contemporary Issues Ooi Keat Gin, 2015-12-14 Brunei although a relatively small state is disproportionately important on account of its rich resource base In addition in recent years the country has endeavoured to play a greater role in regional affairs especially through ASEAN holding the chair of the organisation in 2013 and also beyond the region fostering diplomatic political economic and educational ties with many nations This book presents much new research and new thinking on a wide range of issues concerning Brunei largely drawn from Bruneian academics Subjects covered include Brunei's rich history the sultanate formerly had much more extensive territories and was a key player in regional affairs the country's economy politics society and ethnicities and resource issues and international relations

Global Education Monitoring Report Global Education Monitoring Report Team, UNESCO, 2024-10-31

(Re)presenting Brunei Darussalam Lian Kwen Fee, Paul J. Carnegie, Noor Hasharina Hassan, 2023-04-06 This thoughtful and wide ranging open access volume explores the forces and issues shaping and defining contemporary identities and everyday life in Brunei Darussalam It is a subject that until now has received comparatively limited attention from mainstream social scientists working on Southeast Asian societies The volume helps remedy that deficit by detailing the ways in which religion gender place ethnicity nation state formation migration and economic activity work their way into and reflect in the lives of ordinary Bruneians In a first of its kind all the lead authors of the chapter contributions are local Bruneian scholars and the editors skilfully bring the study of Brunei into the fold of the sociology of everyday life from multiple disciplinary directions By engaging local scholars to document everyday concerns that matter to them the volume presents a collage of distinct but interrelated case studies that have been previously undocumented or relatively underappreciated These interior portrayals render new angles of vision scale and nuance to our understandings of Brunei often overlooked by mainstream inquiry Each in its own way speaks to how structures and institutions express themselves through complex processes to influence the lives of inhabitants Academic scholars university students and others interested in the study of contemporary Brunei Darussalam will find this volume an invaluable resource for unravelling its diversity and textures At the same time it hopefully stimulates critical reflection on positionality hierarchies of knowledge production cultural diversity and the ways in which we approach the social science study of Brunei I wish to commend the editors for bringing this volume to fruition It is an important book in the context of Southeast Asian sociology and even more important for the development of our social geographical cultural and historical knowledge of Brunei Victor T King University of Leeds

Courts and Comparative Law Mads Andenas, Duncan Fairgrieve, 2015-07-30 While the role of comparative law in the courts was previously only an exception foreign sources are now increasingly becoming a source of law in regular use in supreme and constitutional courts There is considerable variation between the practices of courts and the role of comparative law and methods remain controversial In the US the issue has been one of intense public debate and it is still one of the major dividing issues in the discussion about the role of the courts Contributing to the existing discussion of the use of comparative law in the courts this book provides an inclusive coherent and practical analysis of the relevant law and jurisprudence in comparative law in the courts It examines the consequences for court procedures and the form of judgments as well as how foreign sources are drawn upon in private international law European law administrative law and constitutional law as well as before general courts The book also includes case studies of comparative law used in particular spheres of the law such as tort law and consumer law Written by practising judges and lawyers as well as leading academics this book serves as a central reference point concerning the role of comparative law before the courts

Corruption and Illegality in Asian Investment Arbitration Nobumichi Teramura, Luke Nottage, Bruno Jetin, 2024-04-19 This open access book explores Asian approaches towards investment arbitration a transnational procedure to resolve disputes between a foreign investor and a host state setting it in the wider political economy and within domestic law contexts It considers the extent to which significant states in Asia are or could become rule makers rather than rule takers regarding corruption and serious illegality in investor state arbitration Corruption and illegality in international investment are widely condemned in any society but there remains a lack of consensus on the consequences especially in investment arbitration A core issue addressed is whether a foreign investor violating a host state's law should be awarded protection of its investment as per its contract with the host state and or the applicable investment or trade agreement between the home state and the host state Some suggest such protection would be unnecessary as the investor committed a crime in the host state while others attempt to establish an equilibrium between the investor and the host state Others claim to protect investment invoking the sanctity of promises made The book starts with a deep dive into economic and legal issues in corruption and investment arbitration and then explores the situation and issues in major countries in the region in detail It is a useful reference point for lawyers economists investors and government officials who are seeking comprehensive and up to date information on anti bribery rules in Asian investment treaties It is of particular interest to students and researchers in economics finance and law who are undertaking new research relating to the multifaceted impacts of corruption
