Re-thinking Postcolonial Education in Sub-Saharan Africa in the 21st Century Edward Shizha, Ngoni Makuvaza, 2017-04-17. What have postcolonial Sub-Saharan African countries achieved in their education policies and programmes? How far have they contributed to successful attainment of the targeted 2015 Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) on education? What were the constraints and barriers for developing an education system that appeals to the needs of the sub-region? Re-thinking Postcolonial Education in Sub-Saharan Africa in the 21st Century: Post Millennium Development Goals is an attempt to demonstrate that Sub-Saharan Africa has the potential and capability to provide solutions to challenges facing its desire and ability to provide sustainable education to its people. To that end, the contributors are academics with an African vision attempting to come up with African home-grown perspectives to fill the gap created by the lapse of the MDGs as the guiding vision and framework for educational provision in Africa and beyond. The book seeks to articulate and address African issues from an informed as well as objective African perspective. The book is also intended to provide insights to scholars who are interested in studying and understanding the nature of postcolonial education in the Sub-Saharan African region. Given the objectives and themes of this book, it is intended for academic scholars, undergraduate and graduate students, human rights scholars, curriculum developers, college and university academics, teachers, education policy makers, international organisations and local and international non-governmental organisations that are interested in African education policies and programmes. Rethinking Postcolonial Education in Sub-Saharan Africa in the 21st Century provides contemporary reflections from multiple perspectives and re-positions the issue of education at the forefront of the debates on African development. Lamine Diallo, Associate Professor, Wilfrid Laurier University, Canada. The book is a welcome addition to discourses and analyses on education in sub-Saharan Africa with reference to a postcolonial critique and the Millennium Development Goals framework on education in Africa. Michael Tonderai Kariwo, PhD Instructor and Research Fellow, University of Alberta, Canada. The Political Legacy of Colonialism in Zimbabwe Everisto Benyera, 2024-11-18. This book investigates the political legacy of colonialism in contemporary African institutions. Using the case study of electoral and justice institutions in post-colonial Zimbabwe, the book explores how those in post-colonial states relate to and with institutions initially designed to oppress them and remain structurally and systematically colonial The book argues that the colonial era colonised the land knowledge and minds of Africans resulting in injustice and epistemicides The book demonstrates how the critical institutions of elections and justice have been rendered anti black and toxic The book calls for Africa to invest in epistemic independence unencumbered by Western political modernity and then deploy that independence to build reconstituted institutions structures and systems that serve the interests of Africans This book will be an important read for African policymakers and researchers working on African politics governance and international relations Fifty Years of the Law Commissions Matthew Dyson,James Lee,Shona Wilson Stark,2016-11-03 This book brings together past and present law commissioners judges practitioners academics and law reformers to analyse the past present and future of the Law Commissions in the United Kingdom and beyond Its internationally recognised authors bring a wealth of experience and insight into how and why law reform does and should take place covering statutory and non statutory reform from national and international perspectives The chapters of the book developed from papers given at a conference to mark the fiftieth anniversary of the Law Commissions Act 1965 Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations,2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Surrogate Languages and the Grammar of Language-Based Music Yoad Winter,Laura McPherson,2022-04-01 The Frontiers of Public Law Jason NE Varuhas,Shona Wilson Stark,2020-01-09 This major collection contains selected papers from the third Public Law Conference an international conference hosted by the University of Melbourne in July 2018 The collection includes contributions by leading academics and senior judges from across the common law world including Australia Canada New Zealand the United Kingdom and the United States The collection explores the frontiers of public law examining cutting edge issues at the intersection of public law and other fields The collection addresses four principal frontiers public law and international law public law and indigenous peoples public law and other domestic fields specifically criminal law and private law and public law and public administration In common with the two books from the previous Public Law Conferences this collection offers authoritative insights into the most important issues emerging in public law and is essential reading for those working in the field Knowledge and Practice in Business and Organisations Kevin Orr,Sandra Nutley,Shona Russell,Rod Bain,Bonnie Hacking,Clare Moran,2016-03-22 Knowledge and Practice in Business and Organisations contributes to scholarly understanding of knowledge and practice mapping the conceptual terrain providing a critical review of debates in the field and setting out key theoretical perspectives Knowledge and practice are explored in a range of organisational and policy settings through six context specific discussions The collection helps shape the field identify areas for future research inquiry and suggest implications for practitioners The range of sites of inquiry represented in the book e g craft working accounting public sector organisations creative industries health care and so on make the book distinctive enabling the reader to connect debates and ideas from across a range of sectors and disciplines The book charts

Perspectives on Linguistic Fixity and Fluidity Jürgen Jaspers, Lian Malai Madsen, 2019-01-15 This volume offers a critical perspective on current views on linguistic fixity and fluidity in sociolinguistics and highlights empirical accounts alternative to prevailing trends in the field Featuring accounts from a broad range of regional contexts the collection takes stock of such terms as polylingualism metrolingualism and translanguaging to question perceptions around multilingual and monolingual language use The book critiques the status of fluid language use as a more natural language practice and in turn its greater potential for corresponding social transformation demonstrating the value of linguistic fixity and the continuous debate between fixity and fluidity in multilingual speakers lives In providing these accounts the book seeks not to advocate for linguistic fixity or fluidity but to argue that sociolinguists pay close attention to the way both types of linguistic practice open up or close down avenues for social transformation This collection is a key reading for graduate students and scholars in sociolinguistics multilingualism and linguistic anthropology Helping Scientists to Communicate Well for All Considered: Strategic Science Communication in an Age of Environmental and Health Crises Scott McWilliams, Marcia Allison, Marina Joubert, Ingrid Lofgren, Brianne Suldoovsky, 2022-09-16 Indigenous knowledge systems and climate change management in Africa Ajayi, O.C. (ed), Mafongoya, P.L. (ed), 2017-11-15 Climate change presents a profound challenge to food security and sustainable development in Africa Its negative impacts are likely to be greatest in the African region which is already food insecure In the face of global climate change and its emerging challenges and unknowns it is essential that decision makers base policies on the best available knowledge In recent years the knowledge of local and indigenous people often referred to as indigenous knowledge IK has been increasingly recognised as an important source of climate knowledge and adaptation strategies Great Zimbabwe Shadreck Chirikure, 2020-11-29 Conditioned by local ways of knowing and doing Great Zimbabwe develops a new interpretation of the famous World Heritage site of Great Zimbabwe It combines archaeological knowledge including recent material from the author's excavations with native concepts and philosophies Working from a large data set has made it possible for the first time to develop an archaeology of Great Zimbabwe that is informed by finds and observations from the entire site and wider landscape In so doing the book strongly contributes towards decolonising African and world archaeology Written in an accessible manner the book is aimed at undergraduate students graduate students and practicing archaeologists both in Africa and across the globe The book will also make contributions to the broader field such as African Studies African History and World Archaeology through its emphasis on developing synergies between local ways of knowing and the archaeology Faith, Identity and Homicide Shona

Robinson-Edwards, 2021-10-09 This book explores the role that religion plays in the lives of imprisoned homicide offenders. Drawing on interviews in an English prison, the author examines how they narrate their life stories and how religion intersects with other categories to rebuild their personal identities after committing a crime and being labelled as murderers or killers. This book seeks to bridge the gap between macro and micro phenomena, examining religion as both a social institution and a personal experience. It also explores the mediating role of institutions with regards to the nature and extent of their influence upon individual choices and actions and provides insights into the nature of the therapeutic prison. It seeks to create some clarity of understanding the complex nature of religiosity, narrative identity, desistance and rehabilitation whilst critically examining elements of social identity that may restrict or enhance this process. It provides a series of recommendations for organisations working with convicted homicide offenders and speaks to academics and practitioners in the fields of criminology, sociology, psychology and religious/theological studies.
