Papers About Beauty:

The Gospel of Beauty in the Progressive Era L. Szefel, 2011-05-09 Szefel investigates the use of poetry in addressing political reform at the turn of the twentieth century. It charts the work of poets and editors many of whom were women and minorities who created a network of organizations to nurture writers who addressed the problems wrought by Progressive era capitalism.

Fabulating Beauty, 2005-01-01 Peter Carey is one of Australia's finest creative writers much admired by both literary critics and a worldwide reading public. While academia has been quick to see his fictions as exemplars of postcolonial and postmodern writing strategies his general readership has been captivated by his deadpan sense of humour his quirky characters the outlandish settings and the grotesqueries of his intricate plots. After three decades of prolific writing and multiple award winning Carey stands out in the world of Australian letters as designated heir to Patrick White. Fabulating Beauty pays tribute to Carey's literary achievement. It brings together the voices of many of the most renowned Carey critics in twenty essays sixteen commissioned especially for this volume an interview with the author as well as the most extensive bibliography of Carey criticism to date. The studies represent a wide range of current perspectives on the writer's fictions. Contributors focus on issues as diverse as the writer's biography his use of architectural metaphors his interrogation of narrative structures such as myths and cultural master plots intertextual strategies concepts of sacredness and references to the Christian tradition and his strategies of rewriting history. Amidst predictions of the imminent death of postist theory the essays all attest to the ongoing relevance of the critical parameters framed by postmodernism and postcolonialism.

Beauty Shop Politics Tiffany M. Gill, 2010-01-29 Looking through the lens of black business history Beauty Shop Politics shows how black beauticians in the Jim Crow era parlayed their economic independence and access to a public community space into platforms for activism. Tiffany M. Gill argues that the beauty industry played a crucial role in the creation of the modern black female identity and that the seemingly frivolous space of a beauty salon actually has stimulated social political and economic change. From the founding of the National Negro Business League in 1900 and onward African Americans have embraced the entrepreneurial spirit by starting their own businesses but black women's forays into the business world were overshadowed by those of black men. With a broad scope that encompasses the role of gossip in salons ethnic beauty products and the social meanings of African American hair textures Gill shows how African American beauty entrepreneurs built and sustained a vibrant culture of activism in beauty salons and schools. Enhanced by lucid portrayals of black beauticians and drawing on archival research and oral histories Beauty Shop Politics conveys the everyday operations and rich culture of black beauty salons as well as their role in building community.
