Resurrection Bay Emma Viskic, 2015-09-01 Caleb Zelic profoundly deaf since early childhood has always lived on the outside watching picking up telltale signs people hide in a smile a cough a kiss When a childhood friend is murdered a sense of guilt and a determination to prove his own innocence sends Caleb on a hunt for the killer But he can't do it alone Caleb and his troubled friend Frankie an ex cop start with one clue Scott the last word the murder victim texted to Caleb But Scott is always one step ahead This gripping original and fast paced crime thriller is set between a big city and a small coastal town Resurrection Bay where Caleb is forced to confront painful memories Caleb is a memorable protagonist who refuses to let his deafness limit his opportunities or his participation in the investigation But does his persistence border on stubbornness And at what cost As he delves deeper into the investigation Caleb uncovers unwelcome truths about his murdered friend and himself

Seen and Unseen: a century of stories from Asia and the Pacific Russell Darnley, 2015-12-08 Malaria cockfights and magic are confronting realities in the Asia Pacific region yet beyond these more remains unseen and misunderstood These cultures also exert an unacknowledged influence far beyond their borders Inspired by one family's experience over three generations these tales are cradled in real events Frailty of memory the natural passing of people and the need to protect others has rendered some into fiction Central to this work is the idea that interactions with people from outside our culture challenge our expectations Meanings and understandings must often be negotiated in intangible non rational and unseen ways Foucault's notion of the third space has influenced this work as has the Balinese belief that reality is an interaction of Sekala the Seen and Niskala the Unseen The unseen also has a political dimension here the elephant in the room Choosing not to see comforted by one's own culture alone is to ignore that regional and global events are unfettered by such introspection

William Clark Russell and the Victorian Nautical Novel Andrew Nash, 2015-10-06 William Clark Russell wrote more than forty nautical novels Immensely popular in their time his works were admired by contemporary writers such as Conan Doyle Stevenson and Meredith while Swinburne considered him the greatest master of the sea living or dead Based on extensive archival research Nash explores this remarkable career

Dynasty Tom Holland, 2015-09-03 A masterly account of this first wicked century of the Roman Empire Sunday Times Holland does not just tell the story of the reign of the Julio Claudian family He knits the history of ancient Rome into his narrative its founding myths the fall of the republic the religious superstitions with a skill so dextrous you don't notice the stitching Dynasty is both a formidable effort to compile what we can know about the ancient world and a sensational story Observer A witty and skilful storyteller He recounts with pleasure his racy tales of psychopathic cruelty incest paedophilia matricide fratricide assassination and depravity William Dalrymple New Statesman A wonderful surging narrative for anyone interested in history politics or human nature and it has never been better told Mail on Sunday THE TOP TEN SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLER
