Zippy the Pinhead Morris lived what amounted to a doppelgänger life studying the young Dutch the middle aged Ronnie and the septuagenarian Chief Executive with a closeness and dispassion not to mention alternations of amusement horror and amazed respect unmatched by any other presidential biographer This almost Boswellian closeness led to a unique literary method whereby in the earlier chapters of Dutch A Memoir of Ronald Reagan Morris's biographical mind becomes in effect another character in the narrative recording long ago events with the same eyewitness vividness and absolute documentary fidelity with which the author later describes the great dramas of Reagan's presidency and the tragedy of a noble life now darkened by dementia I quite understand the author has remarked that readers will have to adjust at first to what amounts to a new biographical style But the revelations of this style which derive directly from Ronald Reagan's own way of looking at his life are I think rewarding enough to convince them that one of the most interesting characters in recent American history looms here like a colossus
