, 1985 Estudio de la motivación humana David C. McClelland, 1989-05-12 La psicología de la motivación es un campo muy amplio y poco delimitado. Lo abarca todo desde los mecanismos fisiológicos de los impulsos animales hasta los motivos subconscientes a que las personas atribuyen su propia conducta. En esta gran obra realizada por una verdadera autoridad en la materia se integran todas estas fuentes de información para proporcionar una visión global y centrarse en los motivos humanos como determinantes de la acción distinguiéndolos de otras variables como emociones, incentivos, valores. Aborda en profundidad la mediación de los motivos su origen y desarrollo sus fuentes sociales desde los motivos en que los padres educan a sus hijos hasta la intervención destinada a cambiar los motivos de la gente. Explora los motivos clave que influyen en el comportamiento humano de logro de poder de afiliación y de evitación. Se trata aquí la motivación de logro en la empresa y en el terreno económico la motivación de poder en la política y la vida de las organizaciones los motivos afiliativos y de evitación en las relaciones interpersonales y la salud. Se examinan los enfoques históricos psicoanálisis y conductismo de la motivación y las bases biológicas de los principales sistemas de motivos. Se ponen en conexión los motivos con las tendencias sociales incluido el desarrollo económico la guerra y la paz etc. Hay pues que destacar junto a la indiscutible profesionalidad del autor un auténtico experto que ha conseguido un libro bien expresado y científicamente apoyado la revisión y puesta al día sobre los estudios empíricos acerca del tema la acertada combinación de los enfoques biológico y social el tratamiento de los efectos de la motivación no sólo en la conducta controlada de laboratorio sino en la vida cotidiana. Las numerosas figuras y tablas que presenta hacen más intuitiva y accesible su lectura al sintetizar los hallazgos de la investigación. Es una obra tanto para estudiantes como para profesionales de la psicología Pennsylvania School Journal, 1938 Includes Official program of the meeting of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association sometimes separately paged
