

U of L Job Evaluation Manual

Introduction

The purpose of this manual is to serve as a reference guide for the Hay Job Evaluation Methodology used to evaluate AUPC positions at the University of Lethbridge. This manual is not intended to be a training manual to prepare individuals to be job evaluators or to be a definitive resource on job evaluation methodology.

As the organization continually changes, the information in this manual may become outdated or new information may be added. Information in this manual will be updated as necessary.

For additional information, users of this guide may contact Human Resources at the University of Lethbridge at (403) 329-2274.

Job Evaluation System

Job evaluation is the analysis and evaluation of work for the purpose of determining the relative value of jobs within an organization. Job evaluation may also provide valuable information for organizational analysis and for human resource planning and management strategies such as succession planning, performance management, compensation, etc.

For a job evaluation system to be effective, care must be taken in ensuring the system is as objective as possible. It is important that each job be evaluated on the basis of current, regular and on-going work conditions and job content. It is also essential that the focus of the evaluation process be on the purpose, scope and responsibilities of work assigned to the position, and not an incumbent's personal qualities or performance. In other words the focus is on the position and not the individual(s) in the position.

As jobs are very often affected in some way by organizational change, maintaining the job evaluation system requires that departments periodically review their organization design and structure to determine if significant changes have occurred. Any change in an organization's structure may alter the content of a job, which may result in an adjustment in the evaluation of the job. Ideally the position description should be updated every time there is a substantial change to a position's purpose, scope, and/or responsibilities.

Joint Committees

The Job Evaluation Committee (JEC) shall meet to jointly evaluate AUPC positions. Membership on this committee is confined to management (Human Resources) and union (AUPC) ranks. Ideally, the JEC will be a representation from a cross-section of job classes to every extent possible. The JEC will evaluate all AUPC jobs in the workplace, as well as maintain the integrity of the Hay Plan. Job evaluation decisions shall be unanimous and deemed final and binding upon the Parties, subject to appeal procedures.

Armstrong's Job Evaluation Handbook Michael Armstrong, 2018-04-03 Job evaluation is key to ensuring that employees are compensated fairly for their work. It is therefore essential that HR professionals have a robust process in place so that pay and reward are transparent and defensible within teams and across departments. Armstrong's Job Evaluation Handbook gives HR professionals all the tools they need to assess which approach to job evaluation is most suitable, how to implement it and how to maintain it. Packed with case studies from leading organizations such as Microsoft, Vodafone and the NHS, this guide will provide HR professionals with the ability to answer key questions such as: how can we decide what is fair to pay our staff? how can we make sure that work of equal value receives equal pay? and how can we make sure that our salaries remain competitive in the market? Armstrong's Job Evaluation Handbook covers everything needed to put effective job evaluation processes in place, including analytical matching and market pricing, developing job grades and defining pay structures. There is also coverage of the latest trends and issues in job evaluation, such as the decline in points-rated systems and the use of levelling by consultants. Underpinned by original research, this is a book that no HR department can afford to be without. Industrial Job Evaluation Systems United States Employment Service, 1947 The Methods and Foundations of Job Evaluation in the United States Air Force Joseph M. Madden, M. Joyce Giorgia, 1961 This report summarizes the history of job evaluation and gives a critical review of the technical literature as a background for the Air Force job evaluation plan. The Air Force plan is described with the rationale for each phase. A discussion of unsolved problems includes an outline of research needed to discover solutions of these problems. An Appendix lists a 200-item bibliography with abstracts. page iii Job Evaluation Bryan Livy, 2020-04-28 This well-written and thoroughly illustrated description of the principles of job evaluation, first published in 1975, sets out to compare the relative usefulness and practical relevance of a wide range of methods within the overall context of remuneration policy and organisational effectiveness.
