The National Center Education Assessment Program (NAEP[®]) is designed to assess the knowledge, skills, and abilities that are critical for college and workforce entry as a national entry-level career achievement program. The department is charged with two core missions: facilitating the Office of Budget Reconciliation Act of 2002 of 2002. The first mission is to maintain the NAEP[®] program, which is a continuous assessment to assess the skills and abilities of students in the United States at the end of each school year. The second mission is to provide continuous information to the public.

Test Readability and Grade Level
