Not Quite Dead A Lowcountry Mystery English Edition:

Not Quite Dead Lyla Payne, 2014-03-27 A broken engagement sends Graciela Harper crawling back to Heron Creek with her tail between her legs but finds the sleepy little town too changed to set her life right Not even her budding drinking problem can obscure her Gramps's failing health or erase the mental picture of her first love happily married to her childhood best friend To top it all off she's having a heck of time convincing the town's dashing young mayor of her unfit for dating status When the ghost of 18th century lady pirate Anne Bonny starts insisting on a near daily audience Graciela has to confront something else she never expected being certifiably nuts at twenty five years old Her brand new I don't give a crap attitude makes it easy to dismiss the mysterious threats that seem to be tied to her search for more information on the long dead pirate but when her family becomes a target Gracie knows she needs to find out why the ghost insists on being a constant reeking companion If Graciela can put aside her prejudice against people without a pulse she may discover that Anne Bonny's problems are intricately linked with her own The past harbors answers could help the cantankerous spirit find closure but she is after all already dead If Graciela doesn't move fast she might find herself doing the haunting instead of the other way around

Not Quite Fixed (A Lowcountry Mystery) Lyla Payne, After being back in Heron Creek for eight months Graciela Harper isn't surprised when she sees ghosts Not anymore When it comes to the Boone family and Leo in particular though there are some metaphorical ghosts Gracie and everyone else would rather stay put in their graves But when one of their own returns from the dead to ask for help Gracie and the Boones have no choice but to face the past and the present no matter what sort of havoc it wrecks on their lives Add a new ghost to mysterious car trouble random anonymous gifts and a moonshiner still missing and Gracie's up to her neck in trouble Good thing she's getting used to it

Not Quite Gone (A Lowcountry Mystery) Lyla Payne, 2015-08-14 Life in Heron Creek is looking up for Graciela Harper despite the fact that every ghost within a fifty mile radius seems intent on sticking to her like glue and not the weak Elmer's kind either But with a sexy boyfriend her old friends back in her life and a great job prospect at one of the oldest plantations in the country it's hard to complain even if her new boss is said boyfriend's mother Things don't stay uncomplicated for long as not one ghost but two show up at Drayton Hall One wants closure which Gracie thinks she can handle but the other seems to know more than she should about the centuries old voodoo curse on Gracie's own family As she digs deeper into the past of not only the plantation grounds but Beau's family tree surprising secrets claw their way to the surface With Mrs Drayton breathing down her neck a shift in her abilities Amelia's custody case taking a turn for the worse and the sudden appearance of her decidedly not dead father Gracie has her hands full She might be able to tackle all of those things with the help of a friend or two some breathing some not but there's one crossroads Gracie doesn't see coming It's the choice between family and romance and she's not the only one being forced to make it
