

- Nine years war, 1753-1767. War fought largely in Canada(? Double check)
- War of spanish succession, 1702-1713
- War of austrian succession 1740-1748
- French and indian war (1754-1763) fought largely in north american territory, resulted in the end of france's reign as a colonial power in north america
- Strong leadership of william pitt led british to victory
- costs of the war led to discontent in the colonies and helped spark the american revolution

Navigation acts 1651 were an attempt by britain to dominate international trade

- Aimed largely at the dutch (netherlands)
- Banned foreign ships from transporting goods to british colonies and from transporting goods to britain from elsewhere in europe
- Britain needed more revenue after the french and indian war to pay off war debt, defend expanding empire, and govern 33 far away colonies - so britain passed additional laws to generate revenue

Triangular trade

- Began in colonies with ships setting off for Africa carrying rum
- In africa, rum was traded for gold or slaves
- Ships went from africa to west indies, trading slaves for sugar/molasses/other
- Ships returned to colonies with sugar/molasses to make more rum
- Violated molasses act of 1733, colonists and britain didn't care

Salutary neglect- relax enforcement of strict regulations, particularly trade laws, imposed on american colonies

-development of local gov in america gave colonists a different view of the structure and role of gov

More colonists born in american soil meant less of a connection to britain

Colonists could govern on domestic issues, but Britain controlled international issues

Colonists began to practice representative gov- representatives chosen by male property owners

Acts of British parliament

- Sugar act, 1764 - required taxes to be collected on molasses brought into the colonies, gave british officials the right to search homes of anyone suspicious
- Stamp act, 1764 - taxed printed materials such as newspapers and legal docs. Protests led for this to be repealed in 1766

Journeys in Social Education: A Primer C. White, 2011-07-23 Social education is quite a journey Given the ongoing debate and struggle with defining social education the following is at present a working definition While we resist defining social education we believe that social education emphasizes three areas of study critical pedagogy cultural media studies and social studies education We also stress that education interpreted broadly has the potential to advance social justice Thus emerged social education a lifelong journey for all of us to question to challenge to do and to create Connecting present and past merging current issues with traditional curriculum integrating alternative texts and perspectives empowering and emancipating kids and educators and transforming schools and society the transgressions of social education scream out Dewey Freire Kincheloe Zinn Greene Giroux Apple hooks McLaren Kozol Loewen Said Chomsky even Bob Dylan and many others have provided the impetus May we make them proud The essays within this text demonstrate various journeys in social education They are meant as stories not maps or scripts They are intended to serve as a primer of sorts for those interested in a similar journey Hopefully this can be a meaningful experience for many students educators parents and society as a whole of course Well the journey and struggle continues
