Serenity s days and nights may include the finer things in life but she never pictured it like this Her new surroundings come with limitations and expectations destroying everything that was decent and innocent about her Her soul is crushed and there are no familiar faces around to comfort her Memories of her past have led her into a bottomless pit of regret and hopelessness Carla s search for Serenity begins with nothing promising but her love for her sister keeps her pushing forward When her suspicions turn into actions she unknowingly triggers a chain of explosive events that threaten her sister s existence Cass throws caution to the wind and continues to do business as usual When his denial about Serenity creates coldness toward his sister Heaven he struggles with a life altering decision His twisted lies are catching up to him in the worst way Serenity is in over her head and sees only one way out Will she end it all and give up without a fight or will she be able to play the game of the streets and come out on top

The Greatest Romance Classics of World's Literature is an unparalleled anthology that showcases the evolution and diversity of romantic literature through the ages. This collection brings together an extraordinary range of literary styles from the classic English romance of Jane Austen and the Brontë sisters to the enthralling Russian epics of Leo Tolstoy and from the psychological intricacies of Henry James to the avant garde narratives of Virginia Woolf. With standout pieces that have each in their own way redefined the genre, this anthology highlights the universal theme of love while showcasing the cultural and stylistic differences that enrich the concept of romance. The variety within these pages offers readers a comprehensive insight into the genre's development, setting a precedent for literary excellence. The authors represented in this anthology are not just luminaries in their own right but collectively serve as the architects of the romantic and literary sensibilities that have shaped modern storytelling. From the engrossing societal critiques of Charles Dickens and George Eliot to the pioneering narrative techniques of E.M. Forster and F. Scott Fitzgerald, these authors have profoundly contributed to their respective eras, movements, and genres. The anthology's diversity reflects significant historical and cultural movements, blending the Gothic romance of the Brontës, the Victorian realism of Thomas Hardy, and the existential musings of modernists like Woolf and Forster, thereby providing an intricate tapestry of human emotion and interaction through the ages. For readers eager to embark on a journey through the history of romance in literature, The Greatest Romance Classics of World's Literature offers an unrivaled opportunity. It presents a unique chance to delve into the myriad forms of romantic expression, exploring its evolution from the passionate, often tumultuous relationships of early literature to the nuanced introspective portrayals of the contemporary period. This anthology not only educates but also entertains, inviting readers to engage with the dialogues and debates that have animated the genre for centuries. It is an essential collection for anyone looking to understand the depth and breadth of romantic literature and its continuous influence on world literature.

The Greatest Romance Classics of All Time is a monumental collection that showcases the breadth and depth of romantic literature spanning centuries and encapsulating a variety of literary styles. From the tragic depths of Tolstoy's explorations of love and loss to the witty and satirical amours immortalized by Jane Austen, from the Gothic passions of the Brontë sisters to the modernist portrayals of love's complexities by Virginia Woolf, this anthology offers a panoramic view of the ways in which romance has been conceived and reconceived in literary history. Standout pieces include the timeless tragedy of Shakespeare's star-crossed lovers, the intricate social dances of Edith Wharton's New York, and the poignant unspoken desires in the works of E. M. Forster, highlighting the collection's range from the elation of young love to the introspection of love lost. The contributing authors, an illustrious assembly of some of literature's most revered names, bring to this collection an unmatched depth of cultural and historical contexts. The diversity of authors, spanning from the dawn of modern literature with Fanny Burney to the keen observations of social conventions and individual desires by Henry James, and the innovative narrative styles of F. Scott Fitzgerald, mirrors the evolution of the romance genre itself. This anthology not only aligns with major literary movements from Romanticism to Realism to Modernism but also presents a unique dialogue across cultures and epochs, showcasing the universal and evolving nature of love and human connection. This collection is an indispensable treasure for those who wish to immerse themselves in the rich legacy of romance literature. It offers readers a unique opportunity to explore love in its myriad forms, from the fiery and tumultuous to the subtle and unspoken. This anthology is not merely a celebration of romantic love but an educational voyage through the landscapes of human emotion and societal norms as expressed through romantic encounters across time. It is a must-read for those looking to understand the multifaceted nature of love, appreciate the genius of literary giants, and experience the timeless dialogue between changing societies and the enduring human heart through the lens of romance.
