Education and Gendered Citizenship in Pakistan M. Naseem, 2010-12-14 This book challenges the uncritical use of the long held dictum of the development discourse that education empowers women. Situated in the post structuralist feminist position it argues that in its current state the educational discourse in Pakistan actually disempowers women.

Teaching English in Multilingual Contexts Graeme Cane, 2011-01-18 This collection of innovative thought provoking papers discusses contemporary issues practices and research related to the role and teaching of English in multilingual countries. The papers written by experienced practitioners in the field from a number of different countries examine how the English language can be more effectively taught to students in Asia who speak English as their second third or fourth language. The book will be of interest not only to linguists language teachers and educators but also to social science researchers involved in exploring the effects language policy can have on education and society at large. The eleven chapters in this book are divided into three sections: multilingual aspects in the teaching and learning of English; code switching and code mixing; and assessment. Their authors came to Karachi from different academic cultural and geographic backgrounds and with diverse experiences of the world of English Language Teaching in order to participate in the Fifth International Seminar hosted by the Aga Khan University Centre of English Language. The contributors are all multi linguals for whom the question of how best to teach languages is a challenge they face on a daily basis. This small collection of papers is likely to become a powerful resource for English teachers scholars and researchers interested in the problems facing language educators in today's multilingual multi cultural world.

Conditions for English Language Teaching and Learning in Asia Bernard Spolsky, Kiwan Sung, 2015-01-12 In 1989 Bernard Spolsky published Conditions for Second Language Learning Oxford University Press. At the 2012 Annual Conference of Asia TEFL a number of senior scholars were invited to comment upon the relevance of the book to the teaching of English in their region and to make suggestions on how it might be updated. This volume contains revised versions of these talks and thus provides a survey of the conditions for teaching English in Asia. Most contributors found the Conditions model useful but there has been a major change in emphasis in the past two decades whereas the 1989 book emphasized linguistic and psycholinguistic conditions more recent work generally emphasizes the importance of sociolinguistic and language policy conditions for teaching English in Asia today.
