Iaccino,Cory Barker,Myc Wiatrowski,2017-10-12 This collection of new essays focuses on The CW network s hit television series Arrow based on DC Comic s Green Arrow and its spin offs The Flash DC s Legends of Tomorrow and Supergirl Comic book adaptations have been big business for film studios since Superman 1978 and in recent years have dominated at the box office five of the 11 highest grossing films of 2016 were adapted from comics Superheroes have battled across the small screen for considerably longer beginning with The Adventures of Superman 1952 1958 though with mixed results The contributors explore the reasons behind Arrow s success its representation of bodies its portrayal of women its shifting political ideologies and audience reception and influence on storylines Feeling, Thinking, and Talking L. David Ritchie,2022-09-15 The way the brain body and mind interact with social structure to shape communication has so far not received the attention it deserves This book addresses this gap by providing a novel account of communication as a social biological and neurological force Combining theories from communication studies and psycholinguistics and drawing on biological and evolutionary perspectives it shows how communication is inherently both biological and social and that language and the neural systems that support it have evolved in response to a complex social environment It introduces a clear set of terms based on current research and illustrates key concepts using real life examples from everyday conversation

speaking to a number of current debates around the evolutionary and biological basis of language and the relationship between language cognition and environment Thought provoking and engaging it will change the way we think about the relationship between communication and cognition
