

RUGBY LEAGUE GAME

By James Kirkup

Born 1918 – 2009 (91) | Conscientious objector in WWII
Left England in the 1960s when one of his poems was banned. Very prolific – spent time in Japan where he mastered the art of Haiku. Lived in Spain.

Tone of witty witicism. Light, sat., conversational style. Beside the wisdom and fine irony is a ruthless commentary on the human condition.

Title creates expectation of glorious competition. To be part of a league suggests competitive status. But ironically the content of the poem contradicts this.

Sport is absurd, and sad.
Those grown men ~~just~~ look
In those dreary long blue shorts.
Those ringed stockings, Edwardian, Balding ~~pates~~, and huge Fat knees that ought to be heroes'

Crown of a man's head – losing hair – manhood.

Official rugby terms used

Grappling, hooking, gallantly ~~licking~~ –
Is all this courage really necessary?
Taking their good clean fun
So solemnly, they run each other down
With earnest keenness, for the honour of Vinevy, the cap, the country side

Sarcasm – words in descending order of importance results in ridicule – the country side contradicts the expectation of a grand ideal / ambition.

Overgrown / incongruous

Like great boys roll each other,
In the mud of public Saturdays,
Groping their blind way back
To noble youth, away from the bank
The wife, the gram, the spin drier
Back to the Spartan freedom of the field.

Contradiction – silly / tragic

Players are no longer young – suggests they are doing something childish / no longer appropriate.

Appeal to reader – involves them.

They are kicked out in a uniform which makes them look foolish.

Edward (King of England from 1901 – 1910) seems old fashioned – from a bygone era.

Disgust – sneering – opposite of his idea of the heroic.

Old fashioned term for valiant / noble in battle – satirical tone / irony. These men are past it.

Rhetorical question challenges their actions.

Cliche seems ironic – makes fun of them. They are the cliche.

Poet seems to berate at the violence but recognises the sincerity of their objective.

Embarrassment of their dirty bodies in public

Contrast description of youth and middle age – adults seem unable to recapture their past

Youth – qualities of courage / honour – memories of a more romantic era

Financial responsibilities – grind of a gulf job

Emotional ties, the weight of a child's dependence, mundane domesticity

Double meaning / ambiguity – austere life-style / self-discipline OR courage in the face of danger
