

The Bolsheviks changed the name of their political party to the Communists. They also changed the name of their country to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (U.S.S.R.) or "Soviet Union." Russia had become the world's first Communist country.

Once in power, the communists immediately withdrew from the war against Germany. They transferred millions of acres of land to the poorer peasants. Workers were organized to control and operate factories, and all industries were nationalized (taken over by the government)....

THE RUSSIAN CIVIL WAR: (1919-1921)

A civil war followed between those who supported Lenin's program, known as the "Reds", and those who wished to return to the rule of the Tsar, known as the "Whites". Several foreign powers, including the United States, intervened, sending troops to help the "Whites". Parts of the old Russian Empire even tried to break away. The Red Army, however, enjoyed greater support from peasants and workers. Lenin also took drastic measures, like executing Tsar Nicholas II and his family in cold blood, so that the monarchy could never be restored. After two years of fighting, the Reds defeated the Whites. This victory secured Russia as the first Communist country in the world.

After half a decade of turmoil, the Russian economy was in shambles. Now that the Bolsheviks had gained political control, they needed to deliver on their promises to feed the people....

LENIN'S NEW ECONOMIC POLICY

By 1921, a severe famine was hitting Russia. Lenin came to the conclusion that Communist policies must be temporarily put aside to avoid disaster.

Lenin's goal was to keep the peasants satisfied and to keep the Bolsheviks in power. Lenin introduced the New Economic Policy, or N.E.P., in which some private ownership was permitted in small-scale manufacturing and agriculture. Meanwhile, the government continued to control major industries. The N.E.P. succeeded in slowly increasing production. The policy seemed to be working when Lenin died in 1924. Although many thought Leonid Brezhnev, leader of the Red Army, would succeed Lenin, Joseph Stalin managed to gain control becoming one of the most infamous leaders in history.
