

STUDY GUIDE: LESSON 1

What is Philosophy?

PHIL-201/Liberty University

Lesson Overview

Welcome to this introductory course in philosophy. For our first lesson, we are going to examine the question: What is philosophy? There are 4 ways you can get to know what a discipline is: define it, describe it, contrast and compare it with other disciplines, and finally experience it. In this first lesson, we will aim to accomplish the first 3 of these activities. The rest of the course will be an exercise in experiencing philosophy.

Tasks

View and take notes of the presentation, "Misconceptions about Philosophy."

Read and take notes on Prelude to Philosophy, Chapter 1: "What is Philosophy?"

As you read, make sure you understand the following points and questions:

- List 4 reasons students often presuppose a low view of philosophy.
- Know Socrates' quote: What is the unexamined life? What did he mean when he said it wasn't worth living?
- Know the etymology of the word "philosophy."
- Know the working definition of "philosophy" and explain each of its elements.
- List and explain each of the 6 characteristics under the description of philosophy.
- Contrast and compare philosophy with religion, science, and art. How are they different and how are they similar?
- Explain the value of experiential knowledge in distinction to propositional knowledge.

Phil 201 Study Guide 1:

Experiencing Philosophy - Second Edition Anthony Falikowski, Susan Mills, 2022-11-22 Experiencing Philosophy begins with the assumption that philosophy is not merely something you know but also something you experience and participate in. The book presents philosophical theories and ideas with reference to their practical relevance to the lives of student readers. To this end a number of engaging features and inserts are provided. Original Sources: Numerous primary readings are included introducing students directly to the philosophical work of diverse thinkers ranging from Plato to Martin Luther King Jr. Each reading is thoughtfully excerpted and is followed by reflective questions. Philosopher Profiles: Abstract ideas are connected to the lives of real historical figures through fascinating biographical profiles. Take It Personally: To illustrate how philosophy can be useful and relevant, each chapter begins by placing the material in a personal context. Know Thyself Diagnostics: This book takes seriously as did Socrates the Delphic Oracle's dictum to know thyself. Students are given self-diagnostics to explore their own philosophical values, ideals, and beliefs. Philosophers in Action: Philosophy is something you do, not just something you know. Prompts are provided throughout the text inviting students to conduct thought experiments, analyze concepts, and discuss and debate controversial points. Thinking about Your Thinking: These metacognitive prompts require students to engage in higher order thinking, not only about the presented readings and ideas but also with respect to their own values, assumptions, and beliefs. Plus: Built-in study guides, diagrams, famous philosophical quotations, comics, feature boxes, and more.

A Study Guide for the Revelation of Jesus Christ James H. Stone Jr., 2014-01-21 THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST REV 19 1 21 A GENERAL 1 Chapter 19 brings to a close the Great Tribulation period, Daniel's 70th Week (Dan 9 27) and ushers in the 2nd coming of Jesus Christ. 2 Christ promised he would come again (John 14 3 40) days after his resurrection. Acts 1 3 Christ ascended into heaven from the Mount of Olives, just East of Jerusalem. Acts 1 9 Two angels told the apostles Jesus would return in like manner. Acts 1 11 In Rev 19 11 16 Christ returns with armies of saints and angels. 3 The prophecies of Zechariah will be fulfilled. Thus says the Lord: I am returned to Zion and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Zech 8 3 And his feet shall stand in that day upon the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the East. Zech 14 4 4 In Chapter 19 there are actually 2 scenes: 1 in heaven which is one of great joy and 1 on earth which is one of great judgment. B JOY IN HEAVEN REV 19 1 10 1 SONGS OF THE SAINTS REV 19 1 6 a TIME SEQUENCE 1 After this I, John, heard what sounded like the roar of a great multitude in heaven shouting: Hallelujah! Salvation, glory, power belong to our God for true and just are his judgments; he has condemned the great prostitute, the whore (KJV) who corrupted the earth by her adulteries; he has avenged on her the blood of his servants. Rev 19 1 2 NOTE After this refers to the destruction of the apostate religious system in Rev 17 and the corrupt commercial system in Rev 18. In Rev 18 20 the call to rejoice was issued; now we have the response to that call.

The Puzzle of Perceptual Justification Harmen Ghijsen,2016-04-22 This book provides an accessible and up to date discussion of contemporary theories of perceptual justification that each highlight different factors related to perception i e conscious experience higher order beliefs and reliable processes The book s discussion starts from the viewpoint that perception is not only one of our fundamental sources of knowledge and justification but also plays this role for many less sophisticated animals It proposes a scientifically informed reliabilist theory which can accommodate this fact without denying that some of our epistemic abilities as human perceivers are special This allows it to combine many of our intuitions about the importance of conscious experience and higher order belief with the controversial thesis that perceptual justification is fundamentally non evidential in character Case Study Research for Business Jillian Dawes

Hughes,James T. Robinson,2019-07-11 This well written accessible essay collection demonstrates a maturation in Jewish studies and medieval philosophy Choice Too often the study of philosophical texts is carried out in ways that do not pay significant attention to how the ideas contained within them are presented articulated and developed This was not always the case The contributors to this collected work consider Jewish philosophy in the medieval period when new genres and forms of written expression were flourishing in the wake of renewed interest in ancient philosophy Many medieval Jewish philosophers were highly accomplished poets for example and made conscious efforts to write in a poetic style This volume turns attention to the connections that medieval Jewish thinkers made between the literary the exegetical the philosophical and the mystical to shed light on the creativity and diversity of medieval thought As they broaden the scope of what counts as medieval Jewish philosophy the essays collected here consider questions about how an argument is formed how text is put into the service of philosophy and the social and intellectual environment in which philosophical texts were produced
