

Graduation Speech

Hello. It is an honor for me to be here tonight to bring greetings and congratulations from the school board.

As I began thinking about what I should say to you, I discovered that I could go on for hours talking about your years at (name of school) High School . . . about the experiences you've had which prepared you for this day and for the future. I began making notes about all the advice I should share with you and about all of the many topics I wanted to cover.

Then a friend reminded me about the fate of the famous Greek philosopher, Socrates, who lived a long, long time ago.

Socrates was very intelligent. But Socrates gave long speeches, and his friends killed him.

Since I am no Socrates . . . nor do I want to end up like Socrates . . . I will be brief and to the point.

Tonight (number of graduates) seniors are graduating from (name of school) High School. The room is packed with your friends and relatives, and every person here is proud of you . . . of your accomplishments . . . and of the goals that you have reached. If each of us were to write down a definition of a successful graduate, we would quickly discover that some of the same words and phrases would be repeated over and over again. Common themes would be – dedication, perseverance, integrity, honesty, conscientiousness, dependability and hard work.

From all of the terms used to describe graduates, the one I think should receive top billing is "winner". Each and every one of you is a winner! You have demonstrated through hard work, dependability, conscientiousness,

A Father's Quest Wayne McColley,2021-08-06 The title of the book A

Father's Quest was decided on years before I started writing the book I knew that I would be writing a book from what a medium had told me years before but I never started it Maybe I had to have a bad stroke to make it happen I had prayed for years that my son would get married Maybe I would have to have a stroke for this to happen too God works in our lives in a strange way For years I went to therapy learning to walk and to work on moving my arm I quit therapy in March 2018 I had nothing to do and I became bored for the first time in my life That was when I started writing It would take me twenty seven months to finish Many of my friends told me to record the book and have someone type it for me but I wanted to write the book completely by myself I'm right handed and I can finally move my right hand but cannot really use it I didn't know how to type but I typed it with one finger on my left hand on a computer After our daughter Tammy died on January 5 1997 it became impossible to sleep During that time I lived my whole life over again I went on a six year quest trying to prove that Tammy was murdered and to get custody of my granddaughters Tammy's children I would fail more than I would succeed But I had become too stubborn to ever give up After I had my stroke many of my friends told me that this story was motivational to them I hope you enjoy reading my book A Father's Quest This Was My Pottsville J. Robert

Zane, 2005-10-25 J. King Jr., 2025-04-29 In the tradition of Lessons Learned and Cherished a heartfelt and inspirational narrative by the U S Secretary of Education under the Obama administration about the teachers he learned from worked with who influenced his own groundbreaking career as an educator Teacher By Teacher reflects the transformative power of public education Both of Secretary King's parents were career public school educators His dad was a teacher and administrator and his mother was a teacher and school counselor King's mother passed away suddenly when he was in the fourth grade and his dad suffering from undiagnosed Alzheimer's passed by the time he was 12 Home was unstable and uncertain but public school teachers never gave up on him They made school a safe supportive and engaging place where King could just be a kid away from the challenges at home While many could have seen a young Black and Puerto Rican kid whose life was in crisis and written him off public school teachers mentors and a school counselor gave him a second chance Crises can be catalysts for change This book is about overcoming challenges and the mentors who help us make it through them Teacher By Teacher is a deeply personal love letter to all the teachers in our lives But more than that this book is about the power of mentorship especially for those who are underserved by public institutions and social systems in America The Christian Work and the Evangelist, 1910 Raise Your Kids to Succeed Chris Palmer, 2017-10-04 Raise Your Kids to Succeed What Every Parent Should Know describes what parents can do to be effective and help their children succeed both in school and in life Part I opens with some big foundational questions including the need for parents to realize their own importance It goes on to discuss how to create a family mission statement the importance of creating family traditions and rituals and the pivotal need to model good behavior Part II starts by exploring ways to let your kids know the importance you attach to education It stresses the importance of really listening to your kids reading to them getting outside with them to enjoy nature and teaching them life skills Part III explores ways for you to be present at your child's school and to be an advocate for your child It also focuses on the issue of bullying and how to counter a toxic sexualized and violent culture Raise Your Kids to Succeed will help your children succeed and reach all of the dreams that you have for them and more important the ones they have for themselves Information Structure in Spoken Arabic Jonathan Owens, Alaa Elgibali, 2013-03 Spoken Arabic is different in many respects from literary Arabic This book is concerned with speakers intentions and the structural and pragmatic resources they employ Based on new empirical findings from across the Arabic world this work will be of interest to both students and researchers Karl Jaspers Kurt Salamun, 2022-12-14 This book paints a brief picture of Karl Jaspers unusual life and philosophy The reader gets to know a brave personality who had to face a life between extremes Threatened by an incurable disease and harassed by the Nazi regime Jaspers nevertheless succeeds in building a fruitful work as a psychiatrist researcher academic teacher philosopher and political writer and living an unusually happy marriage in the process The reader is introduced to the main themes of his thinking the meaning of life in borderline situations interpersonal communication God the meaning of history and the defense of democracy His criticism of illiberal totalitarian ways of thinking

My Lord, Ebenezer & Way Maker Chong Ho Kim, 2024-04-16 Our Christian faith is not a philosophy an academic discipline or anything theoretical or abstract It is a religion of miracles that must be obtained and applied concretely and practically in our real lives Living eternal life in heaven and wishing for things we cannot do on earth are all living a life hoping for miracles but most Christians today do not believe in miracles God led his chosen people through forty years in the wilderness shielding them from the scorching sun by day with a pillar of cloud and from the cold by night with a pillar of fire Ebenezer The motive for writing this book is to rediscover in our lives the pillar of fire and cloud of the Lord God Almighty who has led and protected his chosen people without change for forty years in the wilderness Waymaker It is my prayer that through this book you will encounter God the Holy Spirit who is alive and active and that you will find meaning for your life in this dark and chaotic world and that you will recover your lost dreams

Walking through Fire Nawal El Saadawi, 2018-05-15 Words should not seek to please to hide the wounds in our bodies or the shameful moments in our lives They may hurt give us pain but they can also provoke us to question what we have accepted for thousands of years Nawal El Saadawi is one of the greatest writers to come out of the Arab world Born in a small Egyptian village in 1931 her life and writings have shown an extraordinary strength of character and a unique ability to create new worlds in the fight against oppression Saadawi has been pilloried censored imprisoned and exiled for her refusal to accept the oppression imposed on women by gender and class Still she continues to write In A Daughter of Isis Nawal El Saadawi painted a beautifully textured portrait of the childhood that moulded her into a novelist and fearless campaigner for freedom and the rights of women Walking through Fire takes up the story of her extraordinary life We read about her as a rural doctor trying to help a young girl escape from a terrible fate imposed on her by a brutal male tyranny We learn about her activism for female empowerment and the authorities that try to obstruct her We travel with her into exile after her name is put on a fundamentalist death list We witness her three marriages each offering in their way love companionship and shared struggle And we gain an unprecedented insight into this most wonderful of creative minds

At Home with Grief Blake Paxton, 2018-01-19 What would you say to a deceased loved one if they could come back for one day What if you can't just move on from grief At Home with Grief Continued Bonds with the Deceased chronicles Blake Paxton's autoethnographic study of his continued relationship with his deceased mother In the 90s Silverman Klass and Nickman argued that after the death of a loved one the bond does not have to be broken and the bereaved can find many ways to connect with memories of the dead Building on their work many other bereavement scholars have discussed the importance of not treating these relationships as pathological and have suggested that more research is needed in this area of grief studies. However, very few studies have addressed the communal and everyday subjective experiences of continuing bonds with the deceased as well as how our relationship with our grief changes in the long term. In this book, Blake Paxton shows how a community in southern Illinois continues a relationship with one deceased individual more than ten years after her death. Through this gripping autoethnographic account of his mother's struggles with a rare cancer, her death, and his struggles with sexuality, he poses possibilities of what might happen when cultural prescriptions for grief are challenged and how continuing bonds with the dead may help us continue or restore broken bonds with the living.
