Leonard Bast's Adventure: "Looking for a Real Home"

The title of the paper is centred.

It is not a controversial statement to say that E.M. Forster's Leonard Bast, the aspiring,

Book titles are italicized in both the text of the paper and in the Works Cited list.

clerk of Howard's End, is the least successfully rendered major character in the novel. As the novel is concerned with the social realities of its day, it would seem that the failure to convince readers of the reality of Leonard Bast is a serious flaw, although Forster deserves some credit for making the attempt. Margaret and Helen Schlegel's efforts to establish a friendship with Leonard Bast despite class barriers is a parallel action, in the novel, to the author's attempt to include Leonard Bast in the novel as a serious character on a level with Margaret and Helen. Forster is able to portray intelligently the problems the Schlegels have in their endeavour and the reasons for the problems both within Margaret and Helen and within Leonard. But the reader cannot help but notice that Forster is unable to portray Leonard as anything else than other, again, paralleling Margaret and Helen's own inability to accept Leonard as more like themselves than different. Forster's attitude seems fatally divided, yet Leonard Bast's role in the novel is crucially important. His journey towards death, if studied closely, throws light on the most fundamental questions the novel explores, "questions about the way in which reality may be known" (Bradbury 130).

Quoted material is acknowledged with author's last name and page number right after close quotation. Note the punctuation follows the citation.
