New Documents Illustrating Early Christianity, 3 G. H. R. Horsley, Stephen Llewelyn, 1997-12-02 This series seeks to keep New Testament and early church researchers teachers and students abreast of emerging documentary evidence by reproducing and reviewing recently published Greek inscriptions and papyri that illumine the context in which the Christian church developed. Produced by the Ancient History Documentary Research Centre at Macquarie University the New Docs volumes broaden the context of biblical studies and other related fields and provide a better understanding of the historical and social milieus of early Christianity

The Selected Papers of Jane Addams: Vol. 2 Jane Addams, 2010-10-01

Venturing into Usefulness the second volume of The Selected Papers of Jane Addams documents the experience of this major American historical figure intellectual social activist and author between June 1881 when at twenty one she had just graduated from Rockford Female Seminary and early 1889 when she was on the verge of founding the Hull House settlement with Ellen Gates Starr. During these years she was developing into the social reformer and advocate of women's rights socioeconomic justice and world peace she would eventually become. She evolved from a high minded but inexperienced graduate of a women's seminary into an educated woman and seasoned traveler well exposed to elite culture and circles of philanthropy. Artfully annotated The Selected Papers of Jane Addams offers an evocative choice of correspondence photographs and other primary documents presenting a multi layered narrative of Addams's personal and emerging professional life. Themes inaugurated in the previous volume are expanded here including dilemmas of family relations and gender roles the history of education the dynamics of female friendship religious belief and ethical development changes in opportunities for women and the evolution of philanthropy social welfare and reform ideas
