Dear Name:

My name is Stanley Johnson and my Tax ID is 123-45-6789. I just received the county tax letter from your office, and I was surprised to see that I have been taxed based on my house being worth $400,000. I believe there was a mistake in the computation. Just a couple of months ago, I had my house revalued because I was hoping to apply for a second mortgage. During that time the house was just valued at $250,000, and I cannot believe that the value of the house increased by a whopping $150,000 in a matter of two months.

I have enclosed copies of the recent mortgage valuation of the house and I have added some other valuations of the houses on our street. I would like to ask your good office to have your records amended and send me another county tax letter based on the correct value of my property. If you will need additional supporting documents or any other information, please inform me the soonest possible time.

Thank you for your time.

Respectfully yours,

Your Name

Great Lives: Job Charles R. Swindoll, 2009-06-29 Bestselling author Charles Swindoll challenges us to take a closer look at Job s life carefully examining his response to the unexpected and painful experiences that assaulted his once peaceful and God honoring existence and we might just find that Job is a hero after all When you think of Job you may think of a hapless victim of unfair treatment His disastrous circumstances overwhelmed him his so called friends belittled him and his distraught wife discouraged and abandoned him Even God seemed to desert him At first glance Job may not seem like the traditional portrait of a hero but Job s patience strength and dedication in the face of unforeseen suffering makes his story worth knowing As Swindoll traces Job s life and legacy he challenges us to apply the lessons Job learned firsthand to our own lives including the importance of Maintaining integrity no matter what happens Accepting the challenge to change Counting on the justice of the Lord to roll down in his time instead of seeking revenge Resting contentedly in God s plan timing and purpose for you We have no way of knowing what tomorrow may bring but if it is anything like the past we know that storms will always come And when they do we have a choice to react in bitterness and anger or fall to our knees like Job and trust God even though we cannot understand why he would permit such a thing to occur
