SPONSORSHIP FORM

Each year Four Peaks Little League recruits sponsors to help finance the costs of running our little league. These donations may be tax deductible, please consult with your tax advisor. 100% of the money will go to benefit the league. It helps pay for the field rental and lights, umpires, uniforms, equipment and scholarships for those families with particular hardships. Our costs for renting the fields and lights from the City of Mesa have increased. We have kept our registration fees down compared to other little leagues in the area but we need your help to continue to do so. As a sponsor, please see Page 2, for types of sponsorships.

Congress,2000 Philosophy of Sport Jason Holt,2013-11-22 Unlike hefty anthologies and skinny monographs this volume offers both concision and breadth a mesomorphic text The division of the book into two parts the first on the nature of sport the second on rules and values is a natural one reaching out from a grasp of what sport is toward an understanding of what it ought to be In addition to the carefully selected readings the book includes discussion questions and ideas for further inquiry laying out the depth of debate in this rapidly growing field Ultimately readers will glean a richer understanding of what sport is and why it matters so much and in so many ways to so many people The Sports Business in The Pacific Rim Young Hoon Lee,Rodney Fort,2014-10-31 Following consistent and rapid general economic growth Pacific Rim countries have grown as a major force in sports Australia China Japan and Korea populated the top ten medals list at the 2012 London Olympics Pacific Rim countries are major consumers of international sports and domestic professional sports have expanded continuously over time Nippon Professional Baseball and the Korean Baseball Organization are the second and third largest baseball leagues measured by attendance and revenue following Major League Baseball in the U S This book also includes event studies of team ownership assessment of human capital markets analysis of the relationship between attendance and competitive balance the components of fan demand in common the world over and business decisions concerning attendance and pricing There is already demand for comprehensive study of the sports business in the Pacific Rim as witnessed by this growth This book will be of interest of researchers studying and or teaching in the fields of sports economics and sports management as well as a general audience interested in business governance around the world Educating Elites Adam Howard,Rubén A. Gaztambide-Fernández,2010-10-16 The gaze of educational researchers has traditionally been turned down toward the experiences of communities deemed at risk presumably with the purpose of improving their plight Indeed theorizing about the relationship between education culture and society has typically emerged from the study of poor and marginalized groups in public schools Seldom have educational researchers considered class privilege and educational advantage in their attempts at understanding inequality and fomenting social justice This collection of groundbreaking studies breaks with this tradition by shifting the gaze of inquiry up toward the experiences of privilege in educational environments characterized by wealth and the abundance of material resources This edited volume brings together established and emerging scholars in education and the social sciences working critically to interrogate a diversity of educational environments serving the interests of influential groups both within and beyond schools The authors investigate the power relations that underlie various contexts of class privilege They shed light into the ways in which the success of a few relates to the failure of many
