Second Time Around:

The Second Time Around Brenda B Moody, 2024-10-22 Brenda Moody's inspiration for writing The Second Time Around was her whirlwind courtship and an emotional one year marital experience. She described it as being at the hands of a mentally controlling man who was not committed to the relationship or marriage. Her then husband through his own admission to her made the decision to no longer honor the marital vows by turning his attention to other women. As a result of his confession, Brenda found herself in a world of emptiness, in a world of loneliness, and in a world of being unloved. Until one day her father who was grounded in the Lord shared a revelation that God had given him for her. Through godly wisdom, he knew what his daughter was going through and what she had endured through the one year marriage. He revealed to her before God called him home that it was going to be better the second time around. One week later the revelation was revealed when God sent her the man her father had envisioned, a man who had the same faith and belief in God that she had. He helped her by showing her what the tenderness of real love and affection was all about. He showed her what honor, commitment, and devotion looked like in a relationship and in a marriage. He showed her a new beginning to her life, a beginning of a love that has expanded over forty-one years of marriage and is still going strong. Brenda thanks God every night for giving them to each other. She thanks the Lord for a new beginning. She thanks the Lord for the second time around.

In Too Deep Tina Wainwright, 2005-10-04 SOMEONE HAS ENTERED HER HOME Society writer Winslow Talbot feels she is living a lie. She is beautiful, but her face has been cleverly constructed by plastic surgeons after an automobile crash. She is rich, but the wealth belongs to her doting stepfather who's funded a life she finds increasingly shallow. So when she learns of a hit and run boating accident that leaves a young Cuban girl terribly disfigured, Winslow sees the opportunity to make a real difference and decides to help the injured child. SOMEONE KNOWS ALL HER SECRETS. She begins an investigation that leads her to Alex Diaz, editor of a Miami newspaper. But Alex warns Winslow against snooping in Florida's exile community where passions often explode with deadly consequences. SOMEONE WANTS TO KILL HER. Ignoring the warning, Winslow continues probing for answers even as it pits her against her family, her boss, and the Miami

Freedom and Dialogue in a Polarized World Sharon Schuman,2013-12-11 Freedom and Dialogue in a Polarized World argues that our most cherished ideas about freedom being left alone to do as we please or uncovering the truth have failed us They promote the polarized thinking that blights our world Rooted in literature political theory and Mikhail Bakhtin's theories of language this book introduces a new concept dialogic freedom This concept combats polarization by inspiring us to feel freer the better able we are to see from the perspectives of others To say that freedom is dialogic is to apply to it an idea about language If you and I are talking I anticipate from you a response that could be friendly hostile or indifferent and this awareness helps determine what I say If you look bored or give me a blank stare I might not say anything at all In this sense language is dialogic The same can be said of freedom Our decisions take into account the voices of others to which we feel answerable and these voices coauthor our choices In today s polarized world prevailing concepts of freedom as autonomy and enlightenment have encouraged us to take refuge in echo chambers among the like minded Whether the subject is abortion terrorism or gun control these concepts encourage us to shut out the voices of those who dare to disagree We need a new way to think about freedom Freedom and Dialogue in a Polarized World presents riveting moments of choice from Homer s Iliad Dante s Inferno Shakespeare s Merchant of Venice Milton s Paradise Lost Melville s Benito Cereno Dostoevsky s The Brothers Karamazov Kafka s In the Penal Colony and Morrison s Beloved in order to advocate reading for and with dialogic freedom It ends with a practical application to the debate about abortion and an invitation to rethink other polarizing issues For more information please visit <http://dialogicfreedom.weebly.com> Business Chemistry Kim Christfort, Suzanne
