thirty years with only one or two days between sentences and all the murders coincided with his absences from prison and before his next arrest. When protected by Police most had been witnessed. In 12 cases Kelly had presented himself to Police as a star witness who had been talking to the poor depressed man about his unfaithful wife when the train arrived at the station and he jumped underneath it. The widow eventually lost her husband, her reputation when Kelly's story was told to the coroner and her insurance money when the death was ruled to be suicide. The AG authorised five murders to be charged and instructed that prosecutions were to be discontinued and the remaining charges left on file as soon as two convictions were secured as further prosecutions would not be in the public interest due to their expense. Ford Transit Peter
