

To Kill a Mockingbird Settings and Reflections Chart Answer Key

Directions: Various buildings or locations exist in To Kill a Mockingbird. List the details and thoughts about each of them, including their inside and outside appearance, and how the building might reflect an attitude, particular character(s), or belief.

Location	Appearance and Reflection of Character(s)
Atticus's Office	Atticus' office is located in the Maycomb courthouse. It contains a law rack, a typewriter, and a chamberlain. The location and furnishings are symbolic of the lawyer's simple, unpretentious, and easy-going nature.
Boo's House and Yard	Located near to the Finch home, the house has burned from when it was a shop. Oak trees shade the house. A painted picket fence is still located in the front. Tall pine trees are located in the back. Flowers are planted each Sunday. The house and yard reflect isolation, privacy, and mystery.
Miss Maudie's House and Yard	Miss Maudie's property contains flowerbeds and a porch with a big oak chair. After her house burns down, she says that she always wanted "more yard" and that she will "build a smaller house and take in a couple of roomers" and "have the finest yard in Alabama." The flowers and her love for the outdoors reflect Miss Maudie's positive disposition and well as her appreciation for the simple pleasures in life.
The Maycomb Courthouse	The courthouse was originally built before the Civil War. It is a Victorian-style structure, with concrete pillars. A law one floor has two offices of the county and county clerk and others. One of the offices "has a smell of decaying record books mingled with old damp cement and stale urine." It is necessary "to turn on the lights in the daytime." There is always a "film of dust on the flowerbeds." The old-fashioned main structure, the outdated main appearance, and the dusty and unpleasant smells represent the lack of progressive thinking by the town and its citizens.
Mrs. Dubose's House	Mrs. Dubose's house has "an appearance older." Her house has a screen door and a front door with white, fluted pillars. Even after its owner, the house feels morose and inhospitable.
Calpurnia's Church	The First Purchase African M.E. Church is located outside the town's main town, across from the old sawmill tracks. The pulpit is peeling off the walls. It is the only church in town with a steeple and a bell. There is a cemetery located behind it. Once inside, parishioners are welcomed with sweet smells of a egg, collards, and peppermint. The location of the church signifies that blacks are not viewed as members of the Maycomb community. Additionally, the outside appearance of the structure implies that this pretentious and unwelcoming to the people who attend the services. Finally, the pleasing aroma inside the church typify the positive, warm, welcoming ambience that permeates the sanctuary.
Bob Ewell's House	The Ewell home is located behind a garbage dump. The roof is shingled with tin cans that were hammered flat. The house is square, with four tiny rooms inside. During the summer, the windows are covered with chickenbits. Similar to his property, Bob Ewell shows neglect and indifference with his life and with his children, and he exemplifies a spoiled, spoiled individual who doesn't care about those around him.
