of the Graywolf Press Nonfiction Prize Acclaimed for its frank and fascinating investigation of racial identity and reissued on its ten year anniversary Notes from No Man's Land begins with a series of lynchings ends with a list of apologies and in an unsettling new coda revisits a litany of murders that no one seems capable of solving Eula Biss explores race in America through the experiences chronicled in these essays teaching in a Harlem school on the morning of 9/11 reporting from an African American newspaper in San Diego watching the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina from a college town in Iowa and rereading Laura Ingalls Wilder in the Rogers Park neighborhood of Chicago What she reveals is how families schools communities and our country participate in preserving white privilege Notes from No Man's Land is an essential portrait of America that established Biss as one of the most distinctive and inventive essayists of our time Vermont, Once No Man's Land Merritt Clark Barden, 1928 A genealogical summary of the families who have lived along the New York border in Vermont and their connection with those who lived over the line in New York Multitribal Indians In Search of No Man's Land Carla Toney, 2022-12-12 During the American westward expansion Chickamaugans originally Cherokees prioritized resistance to the U.S. government and Euro American invaders They signed treaties with Great Britain and Spain Overlooked by scholars it was the diplomatic savvy of Chickamaugan women and the support of their numerous allies British loyalists free persons of color former slaves and Native Americans from other nations that made it possible for Chickamaugan resistance to last from 1775 to 1794 Carla Toney proves that after the collapse of their resistance many chose migration not as individuals but in migration clusters She clearly elucidates the feudal patterns brought to the United States the cultural fluidity of Indigenous nations and migration as a form of resistance
