International Human Rights Monitoring Mechanisms Alfred Zayas, Bertie G. Ramcharan, Gudmundur Alfredsson, Jonas Grimheden, 2021-10-25 This collection is intended to serve as a thematic textbook on the institutions and procedures devoted to the national implementation of human rights and to the international monitoring of State performance Albeit not exhaustive the coverage extends to most of the monitoring instances available at intergovernmental and non governmental organizations complaints fact finding and investigative procedures State reporting obligations good offices actions dialogue functions human rights education dissemination of human rights information letter campaigns and technical co operation The target audience of the book is students of international human rights law but the book can also serve as a guide for both officials and activists involved in the realization of human rights No Sense of Place Joshua Meyrowitz, 1986-12-11 Meyrowitz addresses the question of how television has affected our everyday lives by advancing the theory that television and other electronic media create new social situations that no longer depend on where we are or who is with us Television he claims has lifted the veils of secrecy between children and adults men and women and politicians and average citizens resulting in a series of revolutionary changes that have blurred the distinctions of age gender and authority The Overlanding Vehicle Builder's Guide Don Alexander, 2024-03-15 What is overlanding Wikipedia states Overlanding is self reliant overland travel to remote destinations where the journey is the principal goal Typically but not exclusively it is accomplished with mechanized off road capable transport from bicycles to trucks where the principal form of lodging is camping It often lasts for extended periods of time months to years and spans international boundaries Overlanding did not originate in America and it is a little different here You would be hard pressed to find a bicycle out in the desert and most people don't stay out there quite that long However the spirit of the activity is the same Do you want to give overlanding a try Great You will need some gear In The Overlanding Vehicle Builder's Guide veteran racer off-roader and journalist Don Alexander provides a terrific overview of what to consider when building your overlanding rig This includes the planned duration of the trip the number of people in your party how far off the beaten path you want to go and the creature comforts you require Understanding those wants and needs shapes what gear you need for the best experience Covered are the strengths and weaknesses of the types of vehicles themselves modifications to the vehicles to make them more capable accessories lighting camping gear food and water storage etc and equipment for trail mishaps and recovery Driving techniques and trail rules and etiquette are also included If you are ready to build a rig or just want to know more about the hobby this book is a great guide to help you get started

Homemade Esthetics Clement Greenberg, 2000-10-19 Thanks to his unsurpassed eye and his fearless willingness to take a stand Clement Greenberg 1909-1994 became one of the giants of 20th century art criticism a writer who set the terms of critical discourse from the moment he burst onto the scene with his seminal essays Avant Garde and Kitsch 1939 and Towards a Newer Laocoon 1940 In this work which gathers previously uncollected essays and a series of seminars delivered at Bennington in 1971 Greenberg provides his most expansive statement of his views on taste and quality in art arguing for an esthetic that flies in the face of current art world fashions Greenberg insists despite the attempts from Marcel Duchamp onwards to escape the jurisdiction of taste by producing an art so disjunctive that it cannot be judged that taste is inexorable He argues that standards of quality in art the artist's responsibility to seek out the hardest demands of a medium and the critic's responsibility to discriminate are essential conditions for great art The obsession with innovation the epidemic of newness leads in Greenberg's view to the boringness of so much avant-garde art He discusses the interplay of expectation and surprise in aesthetic experience and the exalted consciousness produced by great art Homemade Esthetics allows us particularly in the transcribed seminar sessions never before published to watch the critic's mind at work defending and at times reconsidering his theories His views often controversial are the record of a lifetime of looking at and thinking about art as intensely as anyone ever has

Exiles, Allies, Rebels David Treece, 2000-04-30 This is the first global study of the single most important intellectual and artistic movement in Brazilian cultural history before Modernism The Indianist movement under the direct patronage of the Emperor Pedro II was a major pillar of the Empire's project of state building involving historians poets playwrights and novelists in the production of a large body of work extending over most of the nineteenth century Tracing the parallel history of official indigenist policy and Indianist writing Treece reveals the central role of the Indian in constructing the self image of state and society under Empire He aims to historicize the movement examining it as a literary phenomenon both with its own invented traditions and myths and standing at the interfaces between culture and politics between the Indian as imaginary and real As this book demonstrates the Indianist tradition was not merely an example of Romantic exoticism or escapism recycling infinite variations on a single model of the Noble Savage imported from the European imaginary Instead it was a complex evolving tradition inextricably enmeshed with the contemporary political debates on the status of the indigenous communities and their future within the post colonial state These debates raised much wider questions about the legacy of colonial rule the persistence of authoritarian models of government the social and political marginalization of large numbers of free but landless Brazilians and above all the maintenance of slavery The Indianist stage offered the Indian alternately as tragic victim and exile as rebel and outlaw as alien to the social pact as mother or protector of the post colonial Brazilian family or as self sacrificing ally and voluntary slave
