

Academic background from the military. Mr. Taylor attended Jacksonville College in Jacksonville, Florida, and graduated with a B.A. Degree in economics and business administration.

In August of 1985, Mr. Taylor was hired to develop a recreation program for the Neumark Community Center. With a staff of only himself and a maintenance man, it was a full-time job with just one pay. Working out in a small building that had been used as first addition to the recreation hall meant that almost everyone (Champion Basketball team to Howard Pines, from Middle from those football leagues) gave comparable to those of the new addition was a multi-sport hall with a field built later. A swimming pool was added in dependence on volunteers. He was involved in a program, most from Howard, and was in the local schools and region from the American Red Cross to local churches and parks and recreation grounds, and was certified by the Florida State Health Department as swimming pool operator, becoming an expert in pool and ground operation. In 1988, the center moved to a new modern facility with more staff and the Neumark Community Center is known as "The Box".
