IS PREPARED WITH THE ACCOUNTANT Information Accounting for Users: Management and Financial Performance Reports

Management Information

Accounting information is a relatively primitive way of measuring. The measurements are reported in terms similar to those measurements of physical and non-physical quantities and limited changes reflect the economic growth which has occurred in the past century. The measurements do not take into account the changes in the past years that have been made in the structure, composition and complexity of the economy. The measurements are not designed to measure the economic performance of the company, but rather to measure the performance of the company as a whole. The measurements are not designed to measure the performance of the company as a whole, but rather to measure the performance of the company as a whole.
