

IELTS Band 9 Sample Essay

Exam Question: The world today is a safer place than it was a hundred years ago, and governments should stop spending large amounts of money on their armed forces.

To what extent do you agree or disagree with this statement?

It is now some time since the whole world was involved in one war. The world nowadays is no comparison to the past, when millions of soldiers were lost on the battlefield. As the world today is significantly safer than previously, it can be argued that governments should stop spending large amounts of money on their military forces.

The last World War dates back nearly seventy years and, since 1945, no conflict has taken place in western countries. Thus, people have suggested that spending money on necessities within society instead of armed forces is more useful. However, this is very difficult, as even though no significant conflict has taken place in western countries, they are still involved in the conflicts of other countries. For example, the US contribution in the Iraqi war has only recently ended. For such involvement of military forces in foreign lands, countries still need to have strong armed forces, in case they are needed.

Englishan

In some countries like the UK, the military is already significantly weaker than it has been in the past. However, historically, a hundred years is not that long and because no conflict has happened recently, this does not mean that there will be no conflict in the future. At the outbreak of World War Two, the UK was seriously under-prepared, as it had been thought that the horrors of World War One had convinced everyone of the uselessness of war.

In conclusion, certain armed forces are necessary for major countries even though the world is safer than a hundred years ago. They might need to intervene in conflicts in other countries and world peace is by no means assured for the future.

IELTS General Writing Module: Models for High Band Scores J.P. Williams, 2012. This book puts a powerful weapon in the hands of serious students who are determined to achieve a high IELTS band score. Achieving a high IELTS band is not easy. Ignore books that tell you otherwise. It is a difficult job which requires both patience and determination. IELTS Writing tasks in particular demand hard work with plenty of practice and not a little frustration. There is a vast quantity of freely available IELTS study material floating around but what IELTS candidates need are clear task responses that they can model their writing on, explanations about how to attempt questions and detailed analysis about ideas and language. Books on writing techniques and tips will get you so far but one of the most powerful ways of making sure your writing matches up to the high standards of IELTS is to study strong responses to General Writing Tasks 1 Letters and Tasks 2 Writing an Essay. By studying models you can see how descriptions and arguments are developed, how key points are stressed and how appropriate language clothes ideas. General IELTS Task 1 models are presented that cover the types of letters that commonly occur. By following the models and reading the detailed analysis contained in the feedback notes for each task you will begin to understand what is required of you. General IELTS Task 2 models are provided along with detailed feedback notes which will show you how ideas are developed, how single topic paragraphs are essential, how conclusions are drawn and how language needs to flow. Again these varied tasks are very similar in wording and content to what you will experience in your IELTS exam. This book for the General Module in the Models for High IELTS Band Scores series is specifically aimed at those who are serious about their IELTS exams and determined to reach their goal of going on to further academic studies or qualifying for entry to another country.
