Sacrament of First Holy Communion Prayers of the Faithful

Today, we will receive a very special gift from Jesus when we share His body for the first time. Let us say thank you for being so lucky.

As we celebrate our First Holy Communion, we thank Jesus for the people who love us – our families and friends. Lord hear us.

Lord graciously hear us.

As we receive the body of Jesus, may we remember what He told us to do – love one another as I have love you. Lord hear us.

Lord graciously hear us.

We pray for Father _____ who is here with us at our First Holy Communion. May Jesus help him as he continues his work. Lord hear us.

Lord graciously hear us.

We pray for children around the world who are not as lucky as we are. Lord hear us.

Lord graciously hear us.

We pray for people around the world who do not have enough to eat and are hungry. May we remember them in our prayers. Lord hear us.

Lord graciously hear us.

We thank God for our parents and teachers who teach us about Jesus. May God keep them safe. Lord hear us.

Lord graciously hear us.

Kilmartin, 2015-09-22 In the light of its own history the Catholic theology of the Eucharist as it is generally understood today is revealed as a splinter tradition whose deficiencies call for fundamental reformulation The valid aspects of that theology for example the recovery of the role of the Holy Spirit in the new Roman Eucharistic Prayers must be identified and integrated with the faith and practice of the first theological millennium when the lex orandi was not so dominated by the lex credendi In the third theological millennium more attention to the content and structure of the classical Eucharistic Prayers of both East and West will result in a Catholic systematic theology of eucharistic sacrifice that is not only truer to its biblical and patristic foundations but also of ecumenical import closer to some of the theological insights of the Protestant Reformers These highlights of The Eucharist in the West illustrate the great value of this posthumous work Conceptually complete but in only rough draft form at the time of Father Kilmartin's death it has been edited and prepared for publication by Robert J Daly SJ Chapter one describes the characteristics of the eucharistic theology of the Western Latin Fathers Chapter two identifies the more important orientations and developments of the Catholic tradition from early medieval Scholasticism up to the first part of the twelfth century Chapter three singles out the special contribution of early Scholasticism to Latin eucharistic theology Chapter four functions as a bridge from early Scholasticism to high Scholasticism by outlining the general approach to a synthetic theology of the Eucharist which was obtained at the beginning of the thirteenth century Chapter five treats eucharistic theology from high Scholasticism to the Council of Trent Chapter six summarizes the dogmatic teaching of the Council of Trent This is followed in Chapter seven by a treatment of salient features of post Tridentine Eucharistic theology Chapter eight includes an analysis of the practice and theology of Mass stipends Chapter nine includes a detailed analysis of Aquinas's theology of the eucharistic sacrifice Chapter ten offers an account of some recent contributions to the formulation of a theology of the eucharistic sacrifice which have contributed to the modern average Roman Catholic synthesis Robert J Daly SJ is a professor of theology at Boston College and former editor of Theological Studies Edward J Kilmartin SJ 1923 1994 professor for liturgical theology at the Pontifical Oriental Institute in Rome taught theology first at the Weston Jesuit School of Theology and later at Boston College He served as director of the doctoral program in liturgical studies at the University of Notre Dame Official Report of Debates, House of Commons Canada.
