

OFFICIAL VOTER GUIDE

REPUBLICAN PARTY OF SARASOTA COUNTY
PRIMARY ELECTION | August 23, 2022

THE MOST IMPORTANT AUGUST VOTE

Local elections and School Board races are more important than they have ever been. Political leadership closest to the people is most responsive. And as we have painfully seen, if we have the wrong people, children and parents and all our rights are at risk.

CANDIDATES ENDORSED BY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY OF SARASOTA COUNTY VOTE FOR:

Senator Joe Gruters

Joe Gruters is a proven conservative and Sarasota County native facing a primary opponent who lives 120 miles from Sarasota County. Senator Gruters has been a leader in the Florida Senate to make Governor Ron DeSantis' agenda a reality. And as a Sarasota native, he knows the community intimately, unlike his absentee opponent.

School Board

Bridget Ziegler is a wife, mother and proven conservative on the School Board. She will continue to fight for parental rights and against a radical woke agenda.

Tim Enos is a long-time law-enforcement officer and retired schools police chief. He knows how to keep our kids safe and protect them from the radicals.

Robyn Marinelli is a long-time educator as a teacher, counselor and administrator and also knows the current anti-parent radicalism on the Board cannot continue.

Gay Market Guide , American Conservatism Bruce Frohnen, Jeremy Beer, Nelson O. Jeffrey, 2014-05-20 A must own title National Review Online American Conservatism An Encyclopedia is the first comprehensive reference volume to cover what is surely the most influential political and intellectual movement of the past half century More than fifteen years in the making and more than half a million words in length this informative and entertaining encyclopedia contains substantive entries on those persons events organizations and concepts of major importance to postwar American conservatism. Its contributors include iconic patriarchs of the conservative and libertarian movements, celebrated scholars, well-known authors, and influential movement activists and leaders. Ranging from abortion to Zoll Donald Atwell and written from viewpoints as various as those which have informed the postwar conservative movement itself, the encyclopedia's more than 600 entries will orient readers of all kinds to the people and ideas that have given shape to contemporary American conservatism. This long-awaited volume is not to be missed.

Halftime in America Dan S. Wible, 2012-09 The United States of America finds itself in a political halftime show and if something doesn't change soon the second half could see a continuation of disorganized policies that stifle liberty. Author Dan S. Wible, an aerospace engineer, applies engineering principles to seek solutions to prevent the country's problems from escalating. His thought-provoking application of common logic reveals how free trade without balance of trade has resulted in a loss of manufacturing capability and undermined America's infrastructure. The Federal Reserve has been completely irrational in its attempt to manipulate the world economy, creating an economy that is now fundamentally unstable. A return to a limited federal government would enable the free market to once again flourish. Free market capitalism, with the federal and state governments doing only what the people have authorized, is the best way to allow all people to excel. It's Halftime in America and the United States is at risk of becoming a European-style socialist nation, which is the very style of government the country's patriots sought to extract themselves from more than two centuries ago. Wible offers insights to how and why this is happening and what can be done to prevent it.

Confronting the New Conservatism Michael Thompson, 2007-05-01 William Kristol, Paul Wolfowitz, Donald Rumsfeld, Condoleezza Rice, George F. Will, and Dick Cheney. These are today's neoconservatives: confident, clear-cut, and a political force to be reckoned with. But how should we define this new conservatism? What is new about it? In this volume, some of today's top political scholars take on the charge of explaining, defining, and confronting the new conservatism of the last twenty-five years. The authors examine the ideas, policies, and roots of this ideological movement, showing that contemporary neoconservatism has been able to blend many of the aspects of social conservatism, such as religious populism and nationalism, with economic liberalism and the rhetoric of equality of opportunity and individualism. With their emphasis on dismantling the welfare state and a rhetorical return to economic laissez faire and individual rights, neoconservatives have been able to harness populist sentiment in terms of both economics and cultural issues. And with their belief in moral and cultural simplicity, their turn away from science, their conviction in American superiority on the global stage, and their embrace of anti-government rhetoric, they have effectively changed the nature of the American political landscape. The contributors to Confronting the New Conservatism offer a trenchant analysis and substantive critique of the neoconservative ethos, arguing that it is an ideology that needs to be better understood if change is to be had. Contributors: Stanley Aronowitz, Chip Berlet, Stephen Eric Bronner, Lawrence Davidson, Greg Grandin, Philip Green, Diana M. Judd, Thomas M. Keck, Charles Noble, R. Claire Snyder, Michael J. Thompson, and Nicholas Xenos.
