Turkey, Russia and Iran in the Middle East Bayram Balci, Nicolas Monceau, 2021-09-14 This book explores the complexity of the Syrian question and its effects on the foreign policies of Russia Iran and Turkey The Syrian crisis has had a major effect on the regional order in the Middle East Syria has become a territory where the rivalry between Russia and Western powers is being played out and with the West's gradual withdrawal the conflict will without a doubt have lasting effects locally and on the international order This collection focuses on the effects of the Syrian crisis on the new governance of the Middle East region by three political regimes Russia Iran and Turkey Many articles and a number of books have been written on this conflict which has lasted over ten years but no publication has examined simultaneously and comparatively how these three states are participating in the shared management of the Syrian conflict Armed Groups and International Legitimacy William Plowright, 2021-02-23 This book analyses the issue of child soldiers in order to understand how armed groups engage with international organizations to gain international legitimacy The work examines why some armed groups follow the rules of international humanitarian law and others do not It argues that armed groups in conflicts around the world engage with international organizations in order to gain international legitimacy and to show they are following the laws of war By examining the issue of child soldiers in contemporary armed conflict the volume establishes a typology of which groups will engage with international actors and follow the laws of war and which will not The main aim of the book is to understand the rationality of even the most violent of actors and to understand when and how armed groups can be encouraged to follow the laws of war The work draws from extensive primary research conducted among armed groups in Syria and Myanmar including al Qaeda the Islamic State and the many small ethnic insurgent groups of Myanmar This book will be of much interest to students of war and conflict studies security studies international humanitarian law and International Relations The Syrian Refugee Crisis Danilo Mandić, 2022-10-21 The Syrian war the 21st century's most protracted and second deadliest conflict has driven 5.6 million refugees and 6.6 million internally displaced into flight As the civil war draws to a close an autopsy of this historic and unprecedented refugee episode becomes feasible Why did the war generate so many refugees How did so many of them get to Europe Who are these people and why did they leave From whom were they fleeing and why Did European policymakers alleviate or aggravate the refugee crisis The Syrian Refugee Crisis argues that Syrian forced migration has been deeply misunderstood Against conventional wisdom it suggests that refugees engaged smugglers not just as traffickers or criminal exploiters but as natural allies and means to affirm asylum rights that the politicization of refugees according to major actors foreign policy priorities obfuscated the role of US and European foreign policy in generating massive displacement and that restrictionist border policies on the Balkan Route were inhumane incoherent and counterproductive Relying on extensive rare fieldwork data from five countries comprising the Balkan Route Jordan Turkey Greece Serbia and Germany this book sheds light on the understudied counter intuitive and often misunderstood dynamics of forced migration refugee agency border restrictionism anti smuggling policy and migrant decision making in the 21st century Indian Muslims and Citizenship Julten Abdelhalim, 2015-10-05 Through the creation of post colonial citizenship India adopted a hybridisation of specific secular and western conception of citizenship In this democratic framework Indian Muslims are observed on how they make use of the spaces and channels to accommodate their Islamic identity within a secular one This book analyses how the socio political context shapes citizens perceptions of multiple variables such as their sense of political efficacy agency conception of citizenship rights and belief in democracy Based on extensive surveys and interviews and through presenting and investigating the various meanings of jih d the author explores the usage of non Eurocentric conceptual approaches to the study of postcolonial and Muslim societies in particular the meaning it carries in the psyche of the Muslim community She argues that through means of argumentative and spiritual jih d Indian Muslims fight their battle towards a realisation of citizenship ideals despite the unfavourable conditions of intra and inter community conflicts Presenting new examinations of Islamic identity and citizenship in contemporary India this book will be a useful contribution to the study of South Asian Studies Religion Islam and Race and Ethnicity
