

Themes Of Love In Romeo And Juliet

The following academic paper highlights the up-to-date issues and questions of Themes Of Love In Romeo And Juliet. This sample provides just some ideas on how this topic can be analyzed and discussed.

“Here’s much to do with hate but more with love” This quotation from Romeo can in fact describe the whole play. The word “more” shows the power of love to overcome hatred. However, in Romeo and Juliet there are several different types of love demonstrated. For example, characters such as Mercutio can be seen using sexual innuendos and bawdy language. In the play, there is evidence of brotherly love, shown to Romeo by Benvolio; motherly love from the Nurse towards Juliet; and fatherly love shown by Friar Lawrence towards Romeo; a suitor who offers wealth and power, is shown in the character of Paris. On one hand there is Romeo and Juliet who show a very passionate and romantic form of love. Romeo and Juliet’s love is different from everyone else’s thoughts. For them, marriage is completely based upon true love. Others, it may be for power, wealth and recognition. Romeo is one of the protagonists in the play. He comes across as a very romantic and mature teenager who feels the in the deepest love for Juliet who he met at Lord Capulet’s party. “O she doth teach the torches to burn bright.” “What is her mother?” These are his words to Nurse and her answer reveals that his to see if only love has come from his only hate. But this is not the first time Romeo was “in love”. He loves Rosaline in the beginning of the play because that is what he thinks is the manly thing to do. But later he falls in love with Juliet. But once he has set his eyes on her, he completely forgets about Rosaline. Romeo presents Rosaline as having “wit” and being “strong”, as “she” will not be hit with Cupid’s arrow (Act 1 scene 1, lines 203-204), she lives unharmed (line 205) which means secure against his advances is rich in beauty. Mercutio’s attitude towards love is very sarcastic; it uses bawdy humour and innuendo. Mercutio is always twisting words so that they become rude. One innuendo he uses would be “An open-arse, thou pop’n in pear.” Mercutio is not at all a the person who would show any sign of affection, but a person who would joke about love and feelings. He mocks Romeo when he hears about Romeo’s love for Rosaline. Sampson, Gregory and the Nurse all use bawdy humour, but Mercutio is the wittiest. “this is the hag, when maids lie on their backs, That presses them and learns them first to bear, making them women of good carriage. This is she-” He is constantly punning, this shows how he generally behaves. Mercutio does not provide much help to the love of Romeo and Juliet mainly because he doesn’t know about their secret love, but even if he did know he is the kind of character who would mock. He thinks that Romeo is wasting his time with Rosaline, and mocks him. At the beginning of Act 2 Scene 3, Friar Lawrence th
