International Journal of Applied Sciences: Current and Future Research Trends (IJASCFRT) ,2021-12-31 Factors Impacting Student Well-Being and Coping Tactics Aloka, Peter Jo,2024-08-23 Higher education institutions grapple with a pressing challenge the well being of their students Amidst the transition to university life students face a myriad of stressors from academic pressures to managing finances and social connections Yet there continues to be a lack of robust evidence and focused literature addressing this critical issue Factors Impacting Student Well Being and Coping Tactics presents a comprehensive analysis of the factors influencing mental emotional and social health in higher education settings This book explores the intrinsic and extrinsic elements shaping student well being through meticulously curated chapters from risk factors to protective mechanisms By offering evidence based strategies and practical recommendations the book empowers academics administrators and counselors to proactively address students challenges and foster a supportive environment conducive to personal and scholarly growth

Student Stress in Higher Education Aloka, Peter,2023-12-07 In the realm of higher education the journey to academic success is often accompanied by an array of challenges particularly in the form of stress and its profound impact on mental health The multifaceted nature of these challenges stemming from a variety of factors has sparked significant interest among scholars and educators alike Student Stress in Higher Education delves into the intricate interplay between stressors coping mechanisms and the psychological well being of students within higher education institutions This book addresses a conspicuous gap in existing literature meticulously examining the dimensions of stress uniquely experienced in higher education settings The chapters contained within illuminate various facets of this complex issue From the barriers obstructing effective stress management to the gender disparities in mental health experiences each chapter dissects a critical aspect of the overarching theme The insights garnered from these chapters hold potential to reshape institutional approaches to mental health awareness and support This book serves as a beacon of knowledge for a diverse readership Scholars seeking to explore the nuanced landscape of student well being will find this volume to be an indispensable resource Administrators and counselors entrusted with the welfare of students will discover pragmatic approaches to aid students in acclimating to the challenges of higher education From gender specific stress manifestations to the intricacies of institutional mental health provision this book delivers a holistic perspective Deaf Education Beyond the Western World Harry Knoors, Maria Brons, Marc Marschark, 2019-01-16 If teachers want to educate deaf learners effectively they have to apply evidence informed methods and didactics with the needs of individual deaf students in mind Education in general and education for deaf learners in particular is situated in broader societal contexts where what works within the Western world may be quite different from what works beyond the Western world By exploring practice based and research based evidence about deaf education in countries that largely have been left out of the international discussion thus far this volume encourages more researchers in more countries to continue investigating the learning environment of deaf learners based on the premise of leaving no one behind Featuring chapters centering on 19 countries from Africa Asia Latin America and Central and Eastern Europe the volume offers a picture of deaf education from the perspectives of local scholars and teachers who demonstrate best practices and challenges within their respective regional contexts This volume addresses the notion of learning through the exchange of knowledge outlines the commonalities and differences between practices and policies in educating deaf and hard of hearing learners and looks ahead to the prospects for the future development of deaf education research in the context of recently adopted international legal frameworks Stimulating academic exchange regionally and globally among scholars and teachers who are fascinated by and invested in deaf education this volume strengthens the foundation for further improvement of education for deaf children all around the world Media, Conflict and Peacebuilding in Africa Jacinta Maweu, Admire Mare, 2021-03-29 This book explores the role and place of popular traditional and digital media platforms in the mediatization representation and performance of various conflicts and peacebuilding interventions in the African context The role of the media in conflict is often depicted as either good as symbolized by peace journalism or bad as exemplified by war journalism but this book moves beyond this binary to highlight the in between role that the media often plays in times of conflict The volume does not only focus on the relationship between mass media conflict and peacebuilding processes but it broadens its scope by critically analysing the dynamic and emergent roles of popular and digital media platforms in a continent where the semi literate and oral communities still rely heavily on popular communication platforms to get news and information Whilst social media platforms have been hailed for their assumed democratic and digital dividends this book does not only focus on these positive aspects but also shines a light on dark forms of participation which are fuelling racial gender ethnic political and religious conflicts in highly polarized and stratified societies Highlighting the many ways in which traditional digital and popular media can be used to both escalate conflicts and promote peacebuilding this volume will be a useful resource for students researchers and civil society groups interested in peace and conflict studies journalism and media studies in different contexts within Africa

Governance and Transformations of Universities in Africa Fredrick. M. Nafukho, Helen M. A. Muyia, Beverly Irby, 2014-06-01 While universities world over are undergoing reforms and change in the case of African universities as illustrated in this book the reforms and changes are profound and can best be described as transformative This book is unique in many ways which makes it extraordinary First unlike other books that have examined issues on higher education in Africa from externalist positions the contributors to this book are scholars who have been educated are currently teaching in African universities or have taught in African universities The book specifically focuses on transformations in the governance of African universities and its implications on equity entrepreneurship innovation quality assurance information and communication technologies ICTs and reform issues in higher education in Africa The book presents pertinent research on governance in African universities in an experiential and empirical manner The contributors of the book chapters include individuals actively involved in teaching researching and governance of higher education institutions in Africa The chapters are based on empirical data including review of relevant literature The book also recognizes that university governance is more than just crisis in financial or economic issues but includes best management practices shared governance meaningful reforms strategic planning consultation transparency and accountability client students lecturers parents and the public satisfaction as well as the role of the university in development The contributions take cognizance of the fact that governance as a concept is facing fundamental changes in the context of global knowledge economy and African local conditions Contributors also take cognizance of the fact that one important source of change in Africa has been the accelerating speed of scientific and technological advancement in learning at universities where lifelong learning programs adult learning programs distance and online learning are relatively new The chapters are also sensitive to new changes in gender demographical technological education reforms social and economic transformations in the governance of African universities The book is basically an academic book for use by undergraduates and graduate students at universities policy makers and formulators in African ministries of Education supra national organizations foreign organizations working in Africa NGOs and CBOs as well as development stakeholders and community organizers
