Field Training Guide California. Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, 1975 Sample guide for use by field training officers in providing formal on the job instruction to new police officers just having completed basic police academy training The guide offers a programmed consistent means of assuring that all officers are qualified and knowledgeable in the same procedures and policies Checklists covering a full range of general departmental knowledge and specific policing tasks provide the field training officer with a course of instruction as well as an orderly progress report on the new officer's growth and performance while preventing unnecessary duplication of training The major areas covered are general orientation the criminal justice system California police community relations law evidence communications vehicle operations first aid defensive weapons patrol procedures traffic criminal investigation and custody Sample evaluation forms are included

Field Training for Police Officers Michael S. McCampbell, 1987 Revising the Rantoul Police Department Field Training Officer Manual Michael D. Schlosser, 2000 The Post Field Training Program Guide, 1997 The purpose of this guide is to provide a standardized program to guide law enforcement agencies and field training officers FTOs in the initial orientation and field training of newly assigned patrol officers The program is designed to assist these officers in making the transition from what they learned in the academy to performing general law enforcement patrol duties competently in the field The role of the FTO is a critical component of the field training program It is the primary responsibility of the FTO to facilitate this transition process by supervising training and evaluating trainees in the initial application of their previously acquired knowledge and skills Annual Report - Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training California. Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training,1976 Basic Course Certification Review Manual California. Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training,1999 The Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training POST has the responsibility for maintaining the quality of basic training presented in California The basic course certification review process was developed as a means to assure that all standards are being met The review involves academy self assessment and professional peer review POST adopted these policies procedures and standards after consultation with practitioners in the field and presenters of the basic course This manual will provide the agency and POST staff with the needed information and guidance to conduct a successful certification review Rookie Log William Marshak,2017-11-28

Rookie Log The Personal Thoughts and Experiences of Three Rookie Fremont California Police Officers During Field Training When he began this series of interviews for Tri City Voice newspaper William Marshak had very little knowledge of the training necessary to become a police officer in his community He asked local police department officials if it would be possible to interview an officer in training The result is Rookie Log The Personal Thoughts and Experiences of Three Rookie Fremont California Police Officers During Field Training Fascinating in depth conversations with these novice police officers record their thoughts as they progress from simulation and theory of academy training to the reality of assisting and protecting their community as professional peace officers Perfect for those interested in entering law enforcement or just learning more about these guardians of the community Marshak s book is an exciting account in the officers own words of the legal moral and emotional struggles on the path to becoming confident and valued members of the law enforcement team

POST Field Training Officer Course Katherine A. Singer,California. Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training. Basic Training Bureau,1998 The purpose of this manual is to provide a standardized curriculum to guide law enforcement agencies and POST certified field training officer source presenters in the initial orientation and training of newly selected field training officers The curriculum is designed to assist these officers in becoming fair and competent field training officers for their agencies FIELD TRAINING POLICE RECRUITS James T. Haider,1990-01-01 This may be the most easily read and useful book on the Field Training Program It will introduce the reader to the Field Training Officer from this author who is uniquely qualified with a varied substantial background as a field trainer and with extensive teaching experience in managing the FfO program Here are the best ideas of many agencies blended together to accommodate an individual department s needs The experienced Field Training Officer will use this book as a tool and the law enforcement executive will have here a guide and source of information for change and improvement The reader will share the successes of others for the betterment of the police service
