Rotting Frontier Revelations:

Rotting Frontier Dave Atwell, 2014-12-10 You're bitten You're scared but feel fine Then the people around you begin to smell sweeter They smell tasty You find yourself passing on steak and potatoes Only one meal will satisfy the urge human flesh So you commit the ultimate sin and you feed Suddenly you feel better A week later the urge is there again You commit the heinous act again and your cognizance returns As long as you feed you can carry on normally But if your moral standard keeps you from feeding the urge gets stronger People smell sweeter People smell tastier After a week you begin to twitch and your thinking is not sound Two weeks in your speech is gone your muscles atrophy and you're a drooling mess If you make it three weeks you're just a snarling shambling animal driven by the instinct to feed You have the Hunger Much has changed since the Huttons were stranded in Vatt's Crossing With the defeat of one enemy comes the birth of another As the group of survivors try to cope and overcome the constant misfortune that the Hunger causes the town of Hawkins is raided by a rogue group of biters who have organized under one name and one leader After losing nearly half of their numbers the survivors of Vatt's Crossing have little time to mourn Outlaws biters herds of rotters and visits from unwanted guests vie to destroy the group if they don't destroy themselves from within first The second episode of this survival horror tale continues as secrets are uncovered and more blood soaks the plains

Revelation Countdown Cris Mazza, 1993 A collection of stories by award-winning California writer Cris Mazza that reveal the open road to be not romanticized freedom but an unsettling loss of control While in many ways reaffirming the mythic dimension of being on the road romanticized in American pop and folk culture Revelation Countdown also subtly undermines that view These stories project onto the open road not the nirvana of personal freedom but rather a type of freedom more closely resembling loss of control Being in constant motion and passing through new environments destabilizes life casts it out of phase heightens perception and skews reactions Every little problem is magnified to overwhelming dimension Events segue from slow motion to fast forward Background noises intrude causing perpetual wee hour insomnia Imagination flourishes often as an enemy People suddenly discover that they never really understood their travel companions The formerly stable line of their lives veers off course In such an atmosphere the title Revelation

Countdown borrowed from a roadside sign in Tennessee proves prophetic It may not arrive at 7 30 but revelation will inevitably find the traveler

Another America James Ciment, 2024-05-01 The first popular history of the former American slaves who founded ruled and lost Africa's first republic In 1820 a small group of African Americans reversed the course of history and sailed to Africa to a place they would name after liberty itself They went under the aegis of the American Colonization Society a white philanthropic organization with a dual agenda to rid America of its blacks and to evangelize Africa The settlers eventually numbering in the thousands broke free from the ACS and in 1847 establish the Republic of Liberia James Ciment's Another America is the first full account of this dramatic experiment With empathy and a sharp eye for human foibles Ciment reveals that the Americo Liberians struggled to live up to their high ideals They wrote a stirring Declaration of Independence but recreated the social order of antebellum Dixie with themselves as the master caste Building plantations holding elegant soirees and exploiting and even helping enslave the native Liberians the persecuted became the persecutors until a lowly native sergeant murdered their president in 1980 ending 133 years of Americo rule The rich cast of characters in Another America rivals that of any novel We encounter Marcus Garvey who coaxed his followers toward Liberia in the 1920s and the rubber king Harvey Firestone who built his empire on the backs of native Liberians Among the Americoes themselves we meet the brilliant intellectual Edward Blyden one of the first black nationalists the Baltimore born explorer Benjamin Anderson seeking a legendary city of gold in the Liberian hinterland and President William Tubman a descendant of Georgia slaves whose economic policies brought Cadillacs to the streets of Monrovia the Liberian capital And then there are the natives men like Joseph Samson who was adopted by a prominent Americo family and later presided over the execution of his foster father during the 1980 coup In making Liberia the Americoes transplanted the virtues and vices of their country of birth The inspiring and troubled history they created is to a remarkable degree the mirror image of our own Praise for Another America An elegant story of Africa's first republic Concise and yet comprehensive Mr Ciment's poignant history highlights perhaps the most extraordinary thing about Liberia that in spite of so many barriers it has endured for almost two hundred years In this sense Another America is a modern morality tale John Stauffer The Wall Street Journal American Nations
