Annual Analysis Of Competitiveness, Simulation Studies And Development Perspective For 34 Greater China Economies: 2000-2010 Khee Giap Tan, Randong Yuan, Mu Yang, Sangiita Wei Cher Yoong, 2013-12-31 China is emerging as one of the economic giants of the world and is gaining international influence and global leadership that commensurate with its rise China's performance will have far reaching consequences on whether the economic awakening of the country which began more than three decades ago can become a good model to be emulated by other developing economies This book is a collection of policy papers and data sets for the 34 Greater China economies With a comprehensive approach to competitiveness the research by Asia Competitiveness Institute ACI at Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy National University of Singapore takes into account different factors that collectively shape the ability of a nation to achieve substantial and inclusive economic development over a sustained period of time ACI s methodology goes beyond rankings as it conducts policy simulations on how each economy can improve its competitiveness These policy simulations are a compelling value added proposition as they enable policymakers industry leaders and administrators to identify relative challenges and opportunities and to prioritise areas in crafting public policies and development strategies

The London Corn Circular ,1911 Local Government and Politics in China Yang Zhong,2015-02-18 After over a decade of administrative and economic reform in mainland China the center has become increasingly remote and less important for many localities In many ways the mobilization capacity of the central government has been weakened Central government policies are often ignored and local officials are often more interested in personal projects than in centrally directed economic plans In this study of local government and politics in China the author explores when and why local government officials comply with policy directives from above Drawing on interviews with government officials in various municipalities and a review of county records and other government documents he provides the first in depth look at policy implementation at the county and township levels in the PRC The book examines the impact of the Chinese cadre system on the behavior of local officials local party and government structure relationships among various levels of Chinese local government policy supervision mechanisms at local levels village governance of China and more State Power in Ancient China and Rome Walter Scheidel,2015 Two thousand years ago the Qin Han and Roman empires were the largest political entities of the ancient world developing simultaneously yet independently at opposite ends of Eurasia Although their territories constituted only a small percentage of the global land mass these two Eurasian polities controlled up to half of the world population and endured longer than most pre modern imperial states Similarly their eventual collapse occurred during the same time The parallel nature of the Qin Han and Roman empires has rarely been studied comparatively Yet here is a collection of pioneering case studies compiled by Walter Scheidel that sheds new light on the prominent aspects of imperial state formation This essential new volume builds on the foundation of Scheidel s Rome and China 2009 and opens up a comparative dialogue among distinguished scholars They provide unique insights into the complexities of imperial rule including the relationship between rulers and elite groups the funding of state agents the determinants of urban development and the rise of bureaucracies By bringing together experts in each civilization State Power in Ancient China and Rome provides a unique forum to explore social evolution helping us further understand government and power relations in the ancient world Annual Report on the Public Schools in the Province of British Columbia British Columbia. Superintendent of Education,1923 Parliamentary Debates Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1923 Contains the 4th session of the 28th Parliament through the session of the Parliament The Post-Colonial State and Civil War in Sudan Noah R. Bassil,2015-08-25 The humanitarian crisis in Darfur a consequence of the civil war and ongoing violence has attracted significant international media attention Here Noah Bassil offers a re conception of the conflict in Darfur by examining the origins and progression of the conflict through the broader issue of state failure in post colonial Sudan By moving away from a localised view of the conflict Bassil is able to demonstrate the extent to which the breakdown of social relations in Darfur is interconnected with the wider breakdown of Sudanese and post colonial societies offering an examination of the nexus between international national and local forces Through its coherent framework for understanding the causes of the civil war that erupted in the Darfur region in 2003 this book provides a unique examination of the conflict and the wider post colonial situation making it an important contribution to the fields of History International Relations and Peace Studies

Afghanistan from the Cold War Through the War on Terror Barnett R. Rubin,2015-03-25 A collection of articles written from 1989 to 2009 updated for this volume Mobilizing Human Resources in the Arab World (RLE Economy of Middle East) R. Paul Shaw,2015-05-15 R Paul Shaw has travelled widely in the Arab world obtaining data and gathering impressions first hand from national and local planners In this book he identifies population and manpower problems that are likely to become more serious and more difficult to solve if they are neglected at this early stage of Arab development He focuses on five broad areas which are directly or indirectly related to mobilizing human resources and his book will be of special interest to all those who are concerned with such issues as population migration employment inequality the emancipation of women construction and agriculture Dr Shaw proposes policy directives which are sensitive to the problems as they are seen by the Arab governments themselves and sets out practical guidelines which can be used by Arab planners and policy makers An important feature of the book with respect to current literature on Arab development is that it moves away from a preoccupation with growth related investments to a concentration on development related population manpower and employment issues By bringing together such comprehensive empirical and bibliographic information it will also be invaluable as a reference source for some twenty Arab countries First published in 1983
