Seminal Contributions to Information Systems Engineering Janis Bubenko,John Krogstie,Oscar Pastor,Barbara Pernici,Colette Rolland,Arne Sølvberg,2013-06-13 In 2013 the International Conference on Advance Information Systems Engineering CAiSE turns 25 Initially launched in 1989 for all these years the conference has provided a broad forum for researchers working in the area of Information Systems Engineering To reflect on the work done so far and to examine prospects for future work the CAiSE Steering Committee decided to present a selection of seminal papers published for the conference during these years and to ask their authors all prominent researchers in the field to comment on their work and how it has developed over the years

The scope of the papers selected covers a broad range of topics related to modeling and designing information systems collecting and managing requirements and with special attention to how information systems are engineered towards their final development and deployment as software components With this approach the book provides not only a historical analysis on how information systems engineering evolved over the years but also a fascinating social network analysis of the research community Additionally many inspiring ideas for future research and new perspectives in this area are sparked by the intriguing comments of the renowned authors

Integration of AI and OR Techniques in Constraint Programming for Combinatorial Optimization Problems Andrea Lodi, Michela Milano, Paolo Toth, 2010-06 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 7th International Conference on Integration of AI and OR Techniques in Constraint Programming for Combinatorial Optimization Problems CPAIOR 2010 held in Bologna Italy in June 2010 The 18 revised full papers and 17 revised short papers presented together with the extended abstracts of 3 invited talks were carefully reviewed and selected from 72 submissions The papers are focused on both theoretical and practical application oriented issues and present current research with a special focus on the integration and hybridization of the approaches of constraint programming artificial intelligence and operations research technologies for solving large scale and complex real life combinatorial optimization problems

Defense Transportation: Algorithms, Models and Applications for the 21st Century Robert T. Brigantic, Jean Mahan, 2004-07-22 Defense Transportation Algorithms Models and Applications for the 21st Century contains papers divided into three general sections according to the title of this text algorithms models and applications The first section on algorithms contains papers that are theoretical in nature or contain new techniques that relate to Defense Transportation System DTS processes A sampling of the papers contained in this section deals with group theoretic tabu search techniques shortest path sailing distance algorithms and strategic airlift model validation methods The second section contains papers on various transportation models used throughout the DoD and transportation industry as well as some newly developed transportation modelling methods that may eventually find their way into larger scale transportation models A review of the major strategic mobility models is also contained in this section The third section contains papers on various transportation applications that have been used to support various DTS studies and analyses This section also contains a diverse set of topics with articles ranging from a paper on North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO strategic lift requirements to an analysis paper on theater reception staging onward movement and integration Preface by General John W Handy Commander United States Transportation Command Focus on land sea and air transportation models and methods Manuscripts written by analysts and researchers active in the field and directly supporting the United States Defense Transportation System Research methods were instrumental in defining the in place DTS that so efficiently deployed forces for Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom

Algorithms - ESA '95 Paul Spirakis, 1995-09-13 This book constitutes the proceedings of the Third Annual European Symposium on Algorithms ESA 95 held in Corfu Greece in September 1995 The volume presents 42 full revised papers selected during a careful refereeing process from a total of 119 submissions in addition there is a prominent keynote address This year the scope has been further expanded to new areas of computational endeavour in science the book covers many aspects of algorithms research and application ranging from combinatorial mathematics to hardware design Thinking Machines and the Philosophy of Computer Science Jordi Vallverdú, 2010-01-01 This book offers a high interdisciplinary exchange of ideas pertaining to the philosophy of computer science from philosophical and mathematical logic to epistemology engineering ethics or neuroscience experts and outlines new problems that arise with new tools Provided by publisher Integration of AI and OR Techniques in Constraint Programming Helmut Simonis, 2014-05-12 This book constitutes the proceedings of the International Conference on the Integration of Artificial Intelligence AI and Operations Research OR Techniques in Constraint Programming CPAIOR 2014 held in Cork Ireland in May 2014 The 33 papers presented in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from 70 submissions The papers focus on constraint programming and global constraints scheduling modelling encodings and SAT logistics MIP CSP and complexity parallelism and search and data mining and machine learning Integration of AI and OR Techniques in Constraint Programming for Combinatorial Optimization Problems Willem-Jan van Hoeve, John N. Hooker, 2009-05-17 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 6th International Conference on Integration of AI and OR Techniques in Constraint Programming for Combinatorial Optimization Problems CPAIOR 2009 held in Pittsburgh PA USA in May 2009 The 20 revised full papers and 10 extended abstracts presented together with 2 invited talks were carefully reviewed and selected from 65 submissions The papers describe current research in the fields of constraint programming artificial intelligence and operations research and present new techniques or new applications in combinatorial optimization thus exploring ways of solving large scale practical optimization problems through integration and hybridization of the fields different techniques Graph Drawing Michael Kaufmann, Dorothea Wagner, 2007-05-18 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed post proceedings of the 14th International Symposium on Graph Drawing GD 2006 held in Karlsruhe Germany The 33 revised full papers and 5 revised short papers presented together with 2 invited talks 1 system demo 2 poster papers address all current aspects in graph drawing ranging from foundational and methodological issues to applications for various classes of graphs in a variety of fields Principles and Practice of Constraint Programming - CP 2004 Mark Wallace, 2005-01-12 The 10th International Conference on the Principles and Practice of Constraint Programming CP 2003 was held in Toronto Canada during September 27 October 1 2004 Information about the conference can be found on the Web at <http://ai.uwaterloo.ca/cp2004> Constraint programming CP is about problem modelling problem solving programming optimization software engineering databases visualization user interfaces and anything to do with satisfying complex constraints It reaches into mathematics operations research artificial intelligence algorithms complexity modelling and programming languages and many aspects of computer science Moreover CP is never far from applications and its successful use in industry and government goes hand in hand with the success of the CP research community. Constraint programming continues to be an exciting and growing research field as the annual CP conference proceedings amply witness. This year from 158 submissions we chose 46 to be published in full in the proceedings. Instead of selecting one overall best paper we picked out four distinguished papers though we were tempted to select at least 12 such papers. In addition we included 16 short papers in the proceedings; these were presented as posters at CP 2004. This volume includes summaries of the four invited talks of CP 2004. Two speakers from industry were invited. However these were no ordinary industrial representatives but two of the leading researchers in the CP community: Helmut Simonis of Parc Technologies until its recent takeover by Cisco Systems and Jean-François Puget, Director of Optimization Technology at ILOG. The other two invited speakers are also big movers and shakers in the research community: Effective Surveillance for Homeland Security by Francesco Flammini, Roberto Setola, and Giorgio Franceschetti, 2013-06-13. Effective Surveillance for Homeland Security: Balancing Technology and Social Issues provides a comprehensive survey of the state of the art methods and tools for the surveillance and protection of citizens and critical infrastructures against natural and deliberate threats. Focusing on current technological challenges involving multi-disciplinary problem analysis and systems engineering approaches, it provides an overview of the most relevant aspects of surveillance systems in the framework of homeland security. Addressing both advanced surveillance technologies and the related socio-ethical issues, the book consists of 21 chapters written by international experts from the various sectors of homeland security. Part I: Surveillance and Society focuses on the societal dimension of surveillance, stressing the importance of societal acceptability as a precondition to any surveillance system. Part II: Physical and Cyber Surveillance presents advanced technologies for surveillance. It considers developing technologies that are part of a framework whose aim is to move from a simple collection and storage of information toward proactive systems that are able to fuse several information sources to detect relevant events in their early incipient phase. Part III: Technologies for Homeland Security considers relevant applications of surveillance systems in the framework of homeland security. It presents real-world case studies of how innovative technologies can be used to effectively improve the security of sensitive areas without violating the rights of the people involved. Examining cutting-edge research topics, the book provides you with a comprehensive understanding of the technological, legislative, organizational, and management issues related to surveillance. With a specific focus on privacy, it presents innovative solutions to many of the issues that remain in the quest to balance security with the preservation of privacy that society demands. Operations Research Proceedings 1996 by Uwe Zimmermann, Ulrich Derigs, Wolfgang A. Gaul, Rolf H. Möhring, Karl-Peter Schuster, 2012-12-06. The volume contains a selection of manuscripts of lectures presented at the International Symposium on Operations Research SOR 96. The Symposium took place at the Technical University of Braunschweig, September 3-6, 1996. SOR 96 was organized under the auspices of the two German societies of Operations Research: Deutsche Gesellschaft für

Operations Research DGOR and Gesellschaft für Mathematik Ökonomie and Operations Research GMOOR in cooperation with the Working Group Discrete Optimization of the IFIP WG7.4 Since 1995 DGOR and GMOOR jointly prepare the Symposium as a common annual conference. In particular the annual general meetings of the DGOR, the GMOOR and the WG7.4 took place during the conference. The Symposium had 527 participants from 32 countries around the world including 92 participants from Eastern Europe. The Symposium obviously attracts an international audience of workers fully covering the broad spectrum of Operations Research and related areas in economics, mathematics and computer science. The importance of a highly interdisciplinary field as Operations Research is increasing owing to the growth in applications in related disciplines. Technological advances in computer science and algorithmic mathematics are crucial for attacking the great challenges waiting in the areas of applications of Operations Research effectively. As a participant of SOR 96 one could well observe the current pace of achievements. Many of these results are in these proceedings. The program consisted of two plenary, 17 semi-plenary and 335 contributed lectures in 18 sections.

Research and Development in Intelligent Systems XXIX Max Bramer, Miltos Petridis, 2012-10-30. The papers in this volume are the refereed papers presented at AI 2012, the Thirty-second SGAI International Conference on Innovative Techniques and Applications of Artificial Intelligence held in Cambridge in December 2012 in both the technical and the application streams. They present new and innovative developments and applications divided into technical stream sections on Data Mining, Data Mining and Machine Learning, Planning and Optimisation and Knowledge Management and Prediction followed by application stream sections on Language and Classification, Recommendation, Practical Applications and Systems and Data Mining and Machine Learning. The volume also includes the text of short papers presented as posters at the conference. This is the twenty-ninth volume in the Research and Development in Intelligent Systems series which also incorporates the twentieth volume in the Applications and Innovations in Intelligent Systems series. These series are essential reading for those who wish to keep up to date with developments in this important field.

Methods of Soil Analysis, Part 4 Jacob H. Dane, Clarke G. Topp, 2020-05-27. The best single reference for both the theory and practice of soil physical measurements. Methods Part 4 adopts a more hierarchical approach to allow readers to easily find their specific topic or measurement of interest. As such it is divided into eight main chapters on soil sampling and statistics, the solid solution and gas phases, soil heat, solute transport, multi-fluid flow and erosion. More than 100 world experts contribute detailed sections.

Supply Chain Strategies and the Engineer-to-Order Approach Addo-Tenkorang, Richard, Kantola, Jussi, Helo, Petri, Shamsuzzoha, Ahm, 2016-04-07. With the rise of global competitiveness among industries it has become increasingly vital to develop novel strategies to assist in optimizing value chain networks thus helping to secure economic success. By employing engineer-to-order practices many enterprises have improved their manufacturing processes. Supply Chain Strategies and the Engineer-to-Order Approach evaluates innovative processes and original operational models.

frameworks and architectures in the topic areas of industrial engineering and management science Featuring optimized enterprise chain management strategies and emergent research within the field this book is an essential reference source for professional academics and researchers specializing in enterprise operations and engineer to order procedures
