The blue angel provides a new interpretive framework with which to approach this classic Weimar film and suggests that discourses on mass and high culture are integral to the film's thematic and narrative structure. These discourses surface in the relationship between the two main characters: the cabaret entertainer Lola Lola (Marlene Dietrich) and the high school teacher Immanuel Rath (one-time Oscar winner Emil Jannings). In addition to offering insight into some of the major debates that informed the Weimar Republic, this book also demonstrates how similar issues continue to shape the contemporary cultural landscape of Germany, where Dietrich serves as a cultural icon whose symbolic value has contributed significantly to nation building since German unification.
