Afro and Indigenous Intersectionality in America as Nomen Larry L. W. Miles,2023-03-06 Afro and Indigenous Intersectionality in America as Nomen broadens the historical narrative of Indigenous Autochthonous and First World people who have been classified historically as Negro Black Colored Afro and African American By addressing the ways in which the singular narrative of slavery codifies identity this work moves beyond binary racial classifications and proposes the possibility of utilizing holistic historical narratives to foster group and personal identity Living in the Long Emergency James Howard Kunstler,2020-03-03 Forget the speculation of pundits and media personalities For anyone asking Now what the answer is out there You just have to know where to look In his 2005 book The Long Emergency James Howard Kunstler described the global predicaments that would pitch the USA into political and economic turmoil in the 21st century the end of affordable oil climate irregularities and flagging economic growth to name a few Now he returns with a book that takes an up close and personal approach to how real people are living now surviving The Long Emergency as it happens Through his popular blog Clusterf ck Nation Kunstler has had the opportunity to connect with people from across the country They ve shared their stories with him sometimes over years of correspondence and in Living in the Long Emergency Global Crisis the Failure of the Futurists and the Early Adapters Who Are Showing Us the Way Forward he shares them with us offering an eye opening and unprecedented look at what's really going on out there in the US and beyond Kunstler also delves deep into his past predictions comparing and contrasting them with the way things have unfolded with unflinching honesty Further he turns an eye to what's ahead laying out the strategies that will help all of us as we navigate this new world With personal accounts from a Vermont baker homesteaders a building contractor in the Baltimore ghetto a white nationalist and many more Living in the Long Emergency is a unique and timely exploration of how the lives of everyday Americans are being transformed for better and for worse and what these stories tell us both about the future and about human perseverance

The Bold Truth Lazima Tutashinda,1997 Education and Curricular Perspectives in the Qur'an Sarah Risha,2014-12-11 Education and Curricular Perspectives in the Qur'an is a unique academic study that focuses on different perspectives of education curriculum in the Qur'an Sarah Risha explains how Allah Almighty as the great teacher communicated His divine message the Qur'an which may be considered as the textbook to His students the prophets The primary source is the Qur'an itself and sayings of the Prophet Mohammed when necessary While curriculum is a broad term Risha addresses five aspects in particular to examine how the Qur'an deals with this vital element and connects this central religious text to current academic curriculum studies The Way We See it Sandra Richards,2008 Following in the steps of Bernard Coard's How the West Indian Child is Made Educationally Subnormal in the British School System this book also threatens to cause a social and political storm with its hard hitting accounts of school exclusion and the realities of racism Dr Richards takes a radical African centred look at school exclusions teasing out uncomfortable historical links and throwing new light on sensitive and complex issues Her research reveals how teachers who work to be inclusive can themselves be subjected to exclusion They suffer in silence from what she calls professional envy when they try to operate against racialized punitive cultures We learn how technology now shapes young people's daily interactions and the implications for their schooling Through the voices of pupils and today's parents we are led into the world of the people affected by excluding practices The author shows how school exclusion harms children their families communities and society But she goes on to map out the ways teachers can transform their practice and support vulnerable children at risk of exclusion Holding the Line George White Jr.,2005-11-04 The rivalry between the United States and the Soviet Union intensified as Dwight D Eisenhower entered the White House However the burning question for the vast majority of the world's population was not whether they would join the Free World or the Soviet bloc but whether they could achieve meaningful self determination Nowhere did the answer to that question loom larger than in Africa The Eisenhower administration s confrontation with Africa demonstrates the significance of race in the creation and execution of American foreign policy In this new work historian George White Jr explores the ways in which Eisenhower diplomacy influenced by America s racialized fantasies fears and desires turned the Cold War into a global sanctuary for the rehabilitation of Whiteness In turn American statesmen and bureaucrats justified the undermining of democracy and freedom by stuffing the multi faceted realities of African aspirations and Western privileges into the straitjacket of a bi polar worldview Using as its foundation American relations with Ethiopia Ghana South Africa and the Congo Holding the Line demonstrates the power of race to warp perception and to severely limit the parameters and possibilities of human engagement Holding the Line provides a fresh perspective on 1950s era U S foreign relations that remain salient in American diplomacy today This is a book that will be of interest to students of American diplomatic history Critical Race and Whiteness studies American studies and international relations Melanin
