

Regulation and Overregulation (Click-Reading and Review Activity: Answers)

For Your Review

1. keep firms from monopolizing the price and supply of important goods
2. create and enforce antitrust laws to monitor the behavior of parties in monopolizing markets, government monopolies
3. regulate natural monopolies (public utilities, telecommunications, railroad, gas, water, electricity, airports, and post office services)
4. using legal monopoly to protect services that monopolies markets but using statutory price controls to protect consumers' welfare
5. these price controls would lower costs and encourage firms to develop efficient products
6. safety, health, building, minimum standards, telecommunications, etc.

Remember Key Points

1. Producers selling in perfect competition are price takers because price is set by the market and not by the individual producer.
2. A monopolist is the sole provider of a good or service in a market.
3. Monopolies exist when the government protects a company's market with
