Self Introduction Letter To Embassy:

Foreign Visa Requirements, 1987 Target Tokyo Gordon W. Prange, Donald M. Goldstein, Katherine V. Dillon, 2014-05-06 From the New York Times bestselling authors of Miracle at Midway A thrilling account of one of World War II's most legendary spies Richard Sorge was dispatched to Tokyo in 1933 to serve the spymasters of Moscow For eight years he masqueraded as a Nazi journalist and burrowed deep into the German embassy digging for the secrets of Hitler's invasion of Russia and the Japanese plans for the East In a nation obsessed with rooting out moles he kept a high profile boozing womanizing and operating entirely under his own name But he policed his spy ring scrupulously keeping such a firm grip that by the time the Japanese uncovered his infiltration he had done irreversible damage to the cause of the Axis The first definitive account of one of the most remarkable espionage sagas of World War II Target Tokyo is a tightly wound portrayal of a man who risked his life for his country hiding in plain sight Visa Requirements of Foreign Governments United States. Bureau of Consular Affairs, 1985 Bulletin of the Pan American Union, 1913 Letters of Mary, Queen of Scots, and Documents Connected with Her Personal History, Now First Published [translated from the Collection of "Lettres Inedites" by Prince Lobanov-Rostovsky] with an Introduction by A. Anglo-Chinese Encounters Before the Opium War Xin Liu, 2022-08-12 Anglo Chinese Encounters Before the Opium War A Tale of Two Empires Over Two Centuries studies the fascinating encounters between the two historic empires from Queen Elizabeth I's first letter to the Ming Emperor Wanli in 1583 to Lord Palmerston's letter to the Minister of China in 1840 Starting with Queen Elizabeth I's letter to the Chinese Emperor and ending with the letter from Lord Palmerston to the Minister of China just before the Opium War this book explores the long journey in between from cultural diplomacy to gunboat diplomacy It interweaves the most known diplomatic efforts at the official level with the much unknown intellectual interactions at the people to people level from missionaries to scholars from merchants to travelers and from artists to scientists This book adopts a novel mirror approach by pairing and comparing people texts commodities artworks architecture ideologies operating systems and world views of the two empires Using letters gifts and traded goods as fulcrums and by adopting these unique lenses it puts China into the world history narratives to contextualise Anglo Chinese relations thus providing a fresh analysis of the surviving evidence Xin Liu casts a new light on understanding the Sino centric and Anglo centric world views in driving the complex relations between the two empires and the reversals of power shifts that are still unfolding today The book is not intended for specialists in history but a general audience wishing to learn more about China's historical engagement with the world Writing Travel in Central Asian History Nile Green, 2014-01-02 For centuries travelers have made Central Asia known to the wider world through their writings In this volume scholars employ

Travel, Time, and Space in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time Albrecht Classen, 2018-10-22 Research on medieval and early modern travel literature has made great progress which now allows us to take the next step and to analyze the correlations between the individual and space throughout time which contributed essentially to identity formation in many different settings The contributors to this volume engage with a variety of pre modern texts images and other documents related to travel and the individual s self orientation in foreign lands and make an effort to determine the concept of identity within a spatial framework often determined by the meeting of various cultures Moreover objects images and words can also travel and connect people from different worlds through books The volume thus brings together new scholarship focused on the interrelationship of travel space time and individuality which also includes of course women s movement through the larger world whether in concrete terms or through proxy travel via readings Travel here is also examined with respect to craftsmen s activities at various sites artists employment for many different projects all over Europe and elsewhere and in terms of metaphysical experiences catabasis

Divergent Visions, Contested Spaces Jeffrey Hotz, 2021-04-29 This multicultural project examines fictional and non fictional accounts of travel in the Early Republic and antebellum periods Connecting literary representations of geographic spaces within and outside of U S borders to evolving definitions of national American identity the book explores divergent visions of contested spaces Through an examination of depictions of the land and travel in fiction and non fiction the study uncovers the spatial and legal conceptions of national identity The study argues that imagined geographies in American literature dramatize a linguistic contest among dominant and marginal voices Blending interpretations of canonical authors such as James Fenimore Cooper Frederick Douglass Richard Henry Dana Jr and Herman Melville with readings of less well known writers like Gilbert Imlay Elizabeth House Trist Sauk Chief Black Hawk William Grimes and Moses Roper the book interprets diverse authors impressions of significant spaces migrations The movements and regions covered include the Anglo American migration to the Trans Appalachian Valley after the Revolutionary War the 1803 Louisiana Purchase and Anglo American travel west of the Mississippi the Underground Railroad as depicted in the fugitive slave narrative and novel and the extension of American interests in maritime endeavors off the California coast and in the South Pacific Lionel Wakefield W.
