Frida Kahlo & Diego Rivera Gerry Souter, 2019-12-09 They met in 1928 Frida Kahlo was then 21 years old and Diego Rivera was twice her age He was already an international reference she only aspired to become one An intense artistic creation along with pain and suffering was generated by this tormented union in particular for Frida On both continents America and Europe these committed artists proclaimed their freedom and left behind them the traces of their exceptional talent In this book Gerry Souter brings together both biographies and underlines with passion the link which existed between the two greatest Mexican artists of the 20th century

Frida Kahlo Gerry Souter, 2019-12-09 Hidden behind the portraits of Frida Kahlo is the remarkable story of the artist's life It is precisely this combination that attracts the spectator Frida's work is a testimony of her life it is not often that one can understand an artist simply by looking within the frame of their paintings Frida Kahlo is without any doubt Mexico's gift to art history She was just eighteen when a terrible accident changed her life forever leaving her disabled and in constant pain But her explosive temper her unwavering determination and her eagerness gave her the strength to develop her artistic talent Always at her side was the great Mexican painter and muralist Diego Rivera His compulsive womanizing did not prevent Frida from captivating him with her charms her talent and her intelligence She quickly learnt to make the most of Diego's success to discover the world creating her own legacy along the way and being surrounded by a very close group of attentive friends Her personal life was stormy several times she left Diego in order to have relationships with people of both sexes Nonetheless Frida and Diego were able to save their deteriorating romance The history and the paintings that Frida left us reveal the story of a brave woman in constant search of her identity

The Portrait and the Colonial Imaginary Simon Dell,2020-02-26 French colonisers of the Third Republic claimed not to oppress but to liberate imagining they were spreading republican ideals to the colonies to make a Greater France In this book Simon Dell explores the various roles played by portraiture in this colonial imaginary Anyone interested in the history of colonial Africa will have encountered innumerable portraits of African elites produced during the first half of the twentieth century yet no book to date has focused on these ubiquitous images Dell analyses the production and dissemination of such portraits and situates them in a complex and conflicted field of representations Moving between European and African perspectives The Portrait and the Colonial Imaginary blends history with art history to provide insights into the larger processes that were transforming the French metropole and colonies during the early twentieth century This publication is GPRC labeled Guaranteed Peer Reviewed Content Creating Children's Art Games for Emotional Support Vicky Barber, 2011-06-15 This book offers an abundance of fun games that help children to confront personal problems in a light hearted yet meaningful way These are games with a difference as they must be constructed before they can be played The creation aspect involves collaboration within a team and instils an empowering sense of ownership in the creators

Inviting Writing Adam Bushnell, David Waugh, 2017-02-27 With recent research findings by The National Literacy Trust indicating that 1 in 2 children enjoy writing should primary school teachers be using it more There are opportunities for teaching and learning writing in all subjects and all lessons Inviting Writing supports you to find these opportunities and to plan assess and develop children s writing for a range of purposes in a range of styles Chapters cover every curriculum subject and explore the unique writing opportunities for each one It helps you to focus on teaching the skills of composition and on taking writing forward Examples of good practice are included throughout alongside suggestions for teaching activities This book also outlines the many ways in which children s writing can be evidenced and encourages you to reconsider the ways in which children s progress in writing can be tracked and captured This is a practical guide to teaching writing across the curriculum Family Constellations in Contemporary Ibero-American and Slavic Literatures Anna

Artwińska, Ángela Calderón, Jobst Welge, 2024-10-07 This volume examines Ibero American as well as Slavic literatures of the 21st century and studies how historical imaginaries in family narratives are functionalized for both individual and collective and post national identities The analysis proceeds along three conceptual axes What these narratives have in common is that they construct specific constellations of the historical imagination and of family whereby family is here conceived not so much as an organic micro unity but rather as changing multiple relations between individual members godparents first and second degree relatives non blood related family members present and absent members adopted children etc Furthermore these novels are often grounded in trans generational memories They are written by members of a generation that as a rule did not directly experience these historical events It is also significant that these narratives are no longer conceived as representing national identities but paradigmatically speak for a collective that defines itself in regional ethnic religious or ideological terms It seems therefore that these narratives of family constellations are in need of more flexible typological rubrics and interpretive frameworks Intended as a sustained comparative study of these family narratives this volume is a contribution in understanding how historical caesura experiences and their literary representation work on the self understanding of the present

De Kooning John Elderfield,Willem De Kooning,Lauren Mahony,Jennifer Field,Delphine Huisinga,Susan Lake,2011 This publication offers an unparalleled opportunity to appreciate the development of the artist s work as it unfolded over nearly seven decades beginning with his early academic works made in Holland before he moved to the United States in 1926 and concluding with his final sparely abstract paintings of the late 1980s

Inventing Marcel Duchamp Janine A. Mileaf,Francis M. Naumann,Michael R. Taylor,2009-04-10 An old genre is given a new look as portraits and self portraits of Marcel Duchamp invent and cover up as much as they reveal and portray One of the most influential artists of the twentieth century Marcel Duchamp 1887 1968 was a master of self invention who carefully regulated the image he projected through self portraiture and through his collaboration with those who portrayed him During his long career Duchamp recast accepted modes for assembling and describing identity indelibly altering the terrain of portraiture This groundbreaking book which accompanies a major exhibition at the Smithsonian Institution s National Portrait Gallery demonstrates the ways in which Duchamp willfully manipulated the techniques of portraiture both to secure his reputation as an iconoclast and to establish himself as a major figure in the art world Although scholars have explored Duchamp's use of aliases little attention has been paid to how this work played into and against existing portrait conventions Nor has any study yet compared these explicitly self constructed projects with the large body of portraits of Duchamp by others Inventing Marcel Duchamp showcases approximately one hundred never before assembled portraits and self portraits of Duchamp The broadly defined self portraits and self representations include the famous autobiographical suitcase Bo te en Valise and Self Portrait in Profile a torn silhouette that became very influential for future generations of artists The portraits by other artists include works by Duchamp's contemporaries Man Ray Alfred Stieglitz Francis Picabia Beatrice Wood and Florine Stettheimer as well as portraits by more recent generations of artists including Andy Warhol Jasper Johns Sturtevant Yasumasa Morimura David Hammons and Douglas Gordon Since the mid twentieth century as abstraction assumed a position of dominance in fine art portraiture has been often derided as an art form the images and essays in Inventing Marcel Duchamp counter this and invite us to rethink the role of portraiture in modern and contemporary art

Restoring Students' Innate Power Louise El Yaafouri, 2022-03-31 This book explores the effects of trauma on newcomer students and presents stress mitigating strategies that empower these multilingual students as they transition to a new environment Diverse insights and experiences bring high powered learning spaces to life However the cultural backgrounds of newcomer students and their families can be very different from the dominant norms of the new community resulting in misalignments that constitute a persistent challenge In addition the process of arriving can exacerbate stress Entering a new school or classroom means situating oneself within a new context of language culture community and shifting personal identities This transition shock contributes to a sense of diminished power In serving these students we can't afford to leave transition shock out of our conversations about trauma We must not only stitch together pieces of culturally responsive practice and trauma informed care but also become practitioners of stress mitigating strategies that empower newcomer students We must focus instruction on our students unique identities We must restore their power In Restoring Students Innate Power newcomer educator and cultural competency expert Louise El Yaafouri presents An understanding of transition shock and how stress and trauma affect recent arrivals The four pillars of transition shock and how they affect learning How students see themselves and how the cultural aspects of their identities inform teachers work in mitigating transition shock How social emotional learning links to trauma informed practice This book isn't exclusively about trauma it's about restoring power The distinction is critical Focusing on the trauma or traumatic event roots us in the past Restoration of power moves us forward
