Hagy,2009-09 Police leaders have sought alternatives to lethal force and better methods to subdue individuals to limit injuries and death In recent years electro muscular disruption technology also known as conducted energy devices CEDs have become the less lethal weapon of choice for many law enforcement agencies CED uses a high voltage low power charge of electricity to induce involuntary muscle contractions that cause temporary incapacitation However a significant number of individuals have died after exposure to a CED Some were normal healthy adults others were chemically dependent or had heart disease or mental illness This study addresses whether CEDs can contribute to or cause mortality and if so in what ways Essentials of Autopsy Practice Guy N. Ruty,2006-03-06 A practical hands on bench book covering difficult areas of autopsy for the modern pathologist Ruty s book is unique chapters deal with issues never previously discussed and have been specifically selected to fill a gap in the market not just re hash old ideas Designed for consultants and trainees alike not only pathologists of all types but also non medics involved with the dead in any way lawyers police bereavement officers undertakers The first volume has become a reference aid to autopsy issues for all grades of lawyers Thus the audience that the book reaches is greater than a pure autopsy or forensic pathology textbook
