Politics Female Circumcision Egypt Construction:

The Politics of Female Circumcision in Egypt Maria Frederika Malmström, 2016-03-22 The percentage of women aged 15-49 in Egypt who have undergone the procedure of female circumcision or genital mutilation cutting FGM C stands at 91% according to the latest research carried out by UNICEF Female circumcision has become a global political minefield with Western interventions affecting Egyptian politics and social development not least in the area of democracy and human rights Maria Frederika Malmstrom employs an ethnographic approach to this controversial issue with the aim of understanding how female gender identity is continually created and re created in Egypt through a number of daily practices and the central role which female circumcision plays in this process Viewing the concept of agency as critical to the examination of social and cultural trends in the region Malmstrom explores the lived experiences and social meanings of circumcision and femininity as narrated by women from Cairo It is through the examination of the voices of these women that she offers an analysis of gender identity in Egypt and its impact on women s sexuality Female Genital Mutilation Charlotte Proudman, 2022-02-03 Female genital mutilation FGM has garnered significant media political and legal attention in the UK Despite criminalising the practice in 1985 FGM continues undetected and often underground This monograph provides a unique insight into survivor s attitudes towards FGM as well as the criminalisation of a culturally embedded practice Some of the narratives might be deeply uncomfortable as women sympathise and even uphold the practice whilst others viscerally describe the trauma and pain that they endured Digging deeper into efforts to eliminate FGM professionals at the coalface of the end FGM movement provide their views on whether the practice can ever be eradicated This volume explores the key themes that emerged from the well publicised criminal trials in the UK and the barriers that prevent the law from working effectively One of the obstacles that are examined further is the legal double standard in criminalising FGM whilst permitting female genital cosmetic surgery which incites hostility and anger amongst FGM performing communities Whilst ending FGM is imperative this enlightening work reflects on the unintended consequences that stem from punitive efforts to criminalise a practice performed by often Black migrant communities Women describe their experiences of racism and Islamophobia in a context of police surveillance and hyperbolic media narratives In an effort of encouraging the abandonment of FGM this publication highlights the need for the law to be accompanied by education initiatives at a grass root level Interrogating Harmful Cultural Practices Chia Longman, Tamsin Bradley, 2016-03-09 This volume explores a variety of harmful cultural practices a term increasingly employed by organizations working within a human rights framework to refer to certain discriminatory practices against women in the global South Drawing on recent work by feminists across the social sciences as well as activists from around the world this volume discusses and presents research on practices such as veiling forced marriage honour related and dowry violence female genital mutilation lip plates and sex segregation in public space With attention to the analytic utility of the notion of harmful cultural practices this volume explores questions surrounding the contribution of feminist thought to international and NGO policies on such practices whether western beauty practices should be analysed in similar terms or should the notion as such from an anthropological perspective be rejected how harmful cultural practices relate to processes of culturalization religionization and secularization and how they can be challenged come to transform and disappear Presenting concrete empirical case studies from Africa South East Asia Europe and the UK Interrogating Harmful Cultural Practices will be of interest to scholars of sociology anthropology development and law with interests in gender the body violence and women s agency

The Rule of Law, Islam, and Constitutional Politics in Egypt and Iran Saïd Amir Arjomand, Nathan J. Brown, 2013-03-25 In recent years Egypt and Iran have been beset with demands for fundamental change The Rule of Law Islam and Constitutional Politics in Egypt and Iran draws together leading regional experts to provide a penetrating comparative analysis of the ways Islam is entangled with the process of democratization in authoritarian regimes By comparing Islam and the rule of law in these two nations one Sunni and Arab speaking the other Shi ite and Persian speaking this volume enriches the current debate on Islam and democracy making for a more nuanced understanding and appreciation of differences with the Muslim world and provides an indispensable background for understanding the Green movement in Iran since 2009 and the Egyptian revolution of 2011

Female genital mutilation in Africa: Politics of criminalisation Satang Nabaneh, 2025-05-26 Despite global criminalisation efforts with over 60 countries including more than 25 in Africa adopting laws Female Genital Mutilation FGM persists devastating the lives of millions of women and girls and exposing the limits of current legal frameworks In Female Genital Mutilation in Africa editor Satang Nabaneh curates a timely and crucial collection illustrating the complex history of colonial legal imposition and the evolving post colonial resistance while challenging dominant narratives Through an intersectional African feminist and decolonial lens this book ignites a vital cross boundary disciplinary national ethnic and religious dialogue on the adequacy of criminal law in addressing FGM Contributors offer theoretical practical and survivor perspectives providing context specific analyses that calls on advocates policymakers legislators scholars and students to rethink human rights and the use of criminal law pertaining to issues of women and girls both in Africa and globally This collection is a significant and timely contribution to the field offering a rigorous examination of the complex legal landscape surrounding FGM in Africa The resurgence of debates around decriminalisation in some African countries underscores the urgent need for sustained vigilance and robust legal protections to safeguard the rights of women and girls Janet Ramatoulie Sallah Njie Vice Chairperson Special Rapporteur on the Rights of Women in Africa African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights This compelling book offers a vital examination of law s role in combatting FGM It compels us to ask why and how do we legislate As the chapters powerfully demonstrate our aim must be to protect victims not merely abolish a harmful practice Kembo Takam Gatsing Hermine Member of the African Committee on the Rights and Welfare of the Child Special Rapporteur on Child Marriage and other Harmful Practice

Love, Sex, and Desire in Modern Egypt L. L.

Wynn, 2018-11-23 Cairo is a city obsessed with honor and respectability and love affairs Sara a working class woman has an affair with a married man and becomes pregnant only to be abandoned by him Ayah and Zeid a respectably engaged couple argue over whether Ayah's friend is a prostitute or a virgin Malak a European belly dancer who sometimes gets paid for sex wants to be loved by a man who won't treat her like a whore just because she's a dancer and Alia a Christian banker who left her abusive husband is the mistress of a wealthy Muslim man Haroun who encourages business by hosting risqué parties for other men and their mistresses Set in transnational Cairo over two decades Love Sex and Desire in Modern Egypt is an ethnography that explores female respectability male honor and Western theories and fantasies about Arab society L L Wynn uses stories of love affairs to interrogate three areas of classic anthropological theory mimesis kinship and gift She develops a broad picture of how individuals love and desire within a cultural and political system that structures the possibilities of and penalties for going against sexual and gender norms Wynn demonstrates that love is at once a moral horizon an attribute that naturally inheres in particular social relations a social phenomenon strengthened through cultural concepts of gift and kinship and an emotion deeply felt and desired by individuals

Routledge Handbook on Middle East Cities Haim

Yacobi, Mansour Nasasra, 2019-07-01 Presenting the current debate about cities in the Middle East from Sana'a Beirut and Jerusalem to Cairo Marrakesh and Gaza the book explores urban planning and policy migration gender and identity as well as politics and economics of urban settings in the region This handbook moves beyond essentialist and reductive analyses of identity urban politics planning and development in cities in the Middle East and instead offers critical engagement with both historical and contemporary urban processes in the region Approaching Cities as multi dimensional sites products of political processes knowledge production and exchange and local and global visions as well as spatial artefacts Importantly in the different case studies and theoretical approaches there is no attempt to idealise urban politics planning and everyday life in the Middle East which as with many other cities elsewhere are also situations of contestation and violence but rather to highlight how cities in the region and especially those which are understudied revolve around issues of housing infrastructure participation and identity amongst other concerns Analysing a variety of cities in the Middle East the book is a significant contribution to Middle East Studies It is an essential resource for students and academics interested in Geography Regional and Urban Studies of the Middle East

Social and Political Foundations of Constitutions Denis J. Galligan, Mila Versteeg, 2013-10-14 This volume analyses the social and political forces that influence constitutions and the process of constitution making It combines theoretical perspectives on the social and political foundations of constitutions with a range of detailed case studies from nineteen countries In the first part leading scholars analyse and develop a range of theoretical perspectives including constitutions as coordination devices mission statements contracts products of domestic power play transnational documents and as reflection of the will of the people In the second part these theories are examined through in depth case studies of the social and political foundations of constitutions in countries such as Egypt Nigeria Japan Romania

Bulgaria New Zealand Israel Argentina and others The result is a multidimensional study of constitutions as social phenomena and their interaction with other social phenomena

Gender and the Social Construction of Illness Judith Lorber, Lisa Jean Moore, 2002-08-20 Judith Lorber and Lisa Jean Moore consider the interface between the social institutions of gender and Western medicine in this brief lively textbook They offer a distinct feminist viewpoint to analyze issues of power and politics concerning physical illness SIGNS labeled the first edition a rich and imaginative work In the extensively revised second edition of this successful text the authors add chapters on disability and genital surgeries They also update and expand their discussions of social epidemiology AIDS the health professions PMS menopause and feminist health care For a creative feminist oriented alternative to traditional texts on medical sociology medical anthropology and the history of medicine this is an ideal choice

Methodological Approaches to Societies in Transformation Yasmine Berriane, Annuska Derks, Aymon Kreil, Dorothea Lüddeckens, 2021-04-21 This open access book provides methodological devices and analytical frameworks for the study of societies in transformation It explores a central paradox in the study of change making sense of change requires long term perspectives on societal transformations and on the different ways people experience social change whereas the research carried out to study change is necessarily limited to a relatively short space of time This volume offers a range of methodological responses to this challenge by paying attention to the complex entanglement of qualitative research and the metanarratives generally used to account for change Each chapter is based on a concrete case study from different parts of the world and tackles a diversity of topics analytical approaches and data collection methods The contributors innovative solutions provide valuable tools and techniques for all those interested in the study of change

Quest for Love in Central Morocco Laura Menin, 2024-04-15 Following the 2011 wave of revolutions and protests in North Africa and the Middle East new discussions of individual freedoms emerged in the Moroccan public sphere and human rights discourse A segment of the public rallied around the removal of an article in the penal code that punished sexual relationships outside of marriage As debates about personal and sexual freedom gain momentum love and intimacy remain complex issues Moving between public clandestine and online interactions Quest for Love in Central Morocco explores the creative ways young women navigate desire and morality Menin's ethnography focuses on young women living in the low income and lower middle class neighborhoods of a midsized town in Central Morocco far from the overt influence of city life At the heart of the book Menin draws upon ideas of love as an ethnographic object and source of theoretical examination She demonstrates that love as a complex cultural and historical phenomenon shaped through intersecting socioeconomic and political developments is crucial in thinking through generational changes and debates in Morocco and the Middle East more broadly What is at stake in the quest for love she argues is not only the making of gendered selves and intimate relationships but also the imagination of social and political life

Global Perspectives on Violence against Women and Girls Tamsin

Bradley, 2020-02-15 As the movement to end all forms of violence against women and girls VAWG gains momentum around the world this provocative new work applies an innovative theoretical lens to gendered violence across a wide variety of countries and contexts Global Perspectives on Violence against Women and Girls engages with VAWG in the UK and across the global South including case studies from India Pakistan and South Sudan Considering various forms of violence including harmful cultural practices such as FGM to Early Child Marriage dowry and bride price related harassment stranger rape work based harassment Intimate Partner Violence and other forms of domestic violence this important volume creates an original critical lens by combining the ecology model the intersectional approach and a spectrum designed to identify the range of different forms of VAWG in a given context Arguing for a greater understanding of the local political and cultural contexts in which VAWG is allowed to flourish Global Perspectives on Violence against Women and Girls is one of the few works to give due prominence to local women's organizations in the global South and beyond who it argues must ultimately play the leading role in ending VAWG At a time when the fight against violent misogyny finds itself at a critical turning point this volume makes a substantial and timely contribution towards the ultimate goal of ending VAWG State Law as

Islamic Law in Modern Egypt Clark Lombardi, 2006-01-01 This volume explores the decision by the government of Egypt in the 1970s to constitutionalize Islamic shar'a and discusses its impact on Egypt's constitutional jurisprudence The author who is trained in Islamic intellectual history and comparative law begins by examining the evolution of Sunni Islamic legal theory and describes competing theories of Islamic law that co-exist in modern Egypt The book then explores how the Supreme Constitutional Court of Egypt has developed its own approach to interpreting shar'a one that permits the Court to argue that shar'a principles are consistent with international human rights norms The book concludes with a discussion of the public reception of the Court's theory This book will be essential for anyone interested in the evolution of Islamic law the development of constitutional thought in the Middle East or the relationship between Islam and human rights Genital

Cutting and Transnational Sisterhood Stanlie Myrise James, Claire C. Robertson, 2002 Extrait de la couverture This book is a much needed response to the ethnocentric and arrogant Western perceptions surrounding female genital cutting FGC often referred to as either female genital mutilation or female circumcision but including a variety of practices of varying history severity geographical distribution and consequences In five provocative essays the contributors to this timely volume challenge representations of FGC In doing so they interweave a range of perspectives including history human rights law Balancing feminist ideals with culturally conscious approaches they dispel sensationalized and widely accepted concepts about FGC that influence Western media law and feminism thought Female Circumcision and the Politics of Knowledge

Obioma Nnaemeka, 2005-07-30 Heated debates about and insurgencies against female circumcision are symptoms of a disease emanating from a mindset that produced hierarchies of humans conquered colonies and built empires The loss of colonies and empires does not in any way mitigate the ideological underpinnings of empire building and the knowledge construction that subtends it The mindset finds its articulation at points of coalescence Female circumcision provided a point of coalescence and impetus for this articulation Insisting that the hierarchy on which the imperialist project rests is not bipolar but multi layered and more complex the contributions in this volume demonstrate how imperialist discourses complicate issues of gender race and history Nnaemeka gives voice to the silenced and marginalized and creates space for them to participate in knowledge construction and theory making The authors in this volume trace the travels of imperial and colonial discourses from antecedents in anthropology travel writings and missionary discourse to modern configurations in films literature and popular culture The contributors interrogate foreign or Western modus operandi and interventions in the so called Third World and show how the resistance they generate can impede development work and undermine the true collaboration and partnership necessary to promote a transnational feminist agenda With great clarity and in simple accessible language the contributors present complex ideas and arguments which hold significant implications for transnational feminism and development

The Middle East and South Asia 2018-2019 Seth Cantey, 2018-10-26 This annually updated volume of the World Today Series is designed to place in context the passionate controversies and emotional attachments of the two billion people who live study work and die in the Middle East and South Asia Despite room for optimism in some areas many parts of the Middle East and South Asia continue to face extraordinary challenges and difficult outlooks Much of this has to do with conflict across the region which extends well beyond atrocities perpetrated by the Islamic State and the Assad regime in Syria This volume depicts a region where hundreds of millions seek dignity as humans and respect from their governments This volume helps the general reader understand recent and past developments from these countries

Human Rights in the Near East and North Africa James T. Lawrence, 2004 The existence of human rights helps secure the peace deter aggression promote the rule of law combat crime and corruption and prevent humanitarian crises These human rights include freedom from torture freedom of expression press freedom women s rights children s rights and the protection of minorities This book surveys the countries of the Near East and North Africa and is augmented by a current bibliography and useful indexes by subject title and author

Egypt and the Politics of Change in the Arab Middle East Robert Bowker, 2010-01-01 The situation unfolding in Egypt and elsewhere in the Arab Middle East has important implications for the future of the Arab political order For the first time a secular but inclusive political alternative to Islamism has emerged It has captured the political imagination of the emerging Arab middle class It will shape the regional security environment Its consequences are unpredictable but the greatest risk to the region is the marginalization and alienation of a movement that has raised and galvanized its political horizons Robert Bowker In his book Egypt and the Politics of Change in the Arab Middle East Professor Robert Bowker argues that if regimes fail to address effectively the demands for empowerment of its educated youth they face the prospect of a tsunami like current of instability and regression Ambassador Bowker's new book achieves the challenging objective of making a contribution to scholarship on Egypt and the Arab world while being accessible to a general audience. He addresses the key drivers of change such as globalization and Islamicization and the entrenched attitudes, behavior, and institutions they confront. Drawing upon an impressive array of empirical information, case studies, and first-hand observations, he both illustrates and assesses the contending forces and the likely outcomes of their confrontations. Robert Springborg, Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, US. This book is certain to be a valued and respected addition to the literature on the eve of a potentially transformational moment in Egyptian history and thus possibly for the Arab world as well. Jerrold D. Green, Pacific Council on International Policy, Los Angeles, US. In this illuminating and informed book, Robert Bowker tackles the prospects for change in the contemporary Arab world. He persuasively argues that while long-term demographic, educational, and social transformations pose formidable challenges for the future, the important issues of political reform, Islamism, and regional security are contestable. The message that this book so engagingly conveys is that change is both inevitable and not necessarily to be feared. It is a refreshingly constructive and timely reminder for all who would see the new Middle East as destined to be volatile and precarious. James Piscatori, Durham University, UK. Dr. Bowker's study provides the best encapsulation and explanation of changes in the Arab world's social and economic landscape in an age of faster and deeper interdependence. Measured and sober in its analysis and challenging in its conclusions, it should be read by all those who want to have a better understanding of the Middle East in general and Egypt in particular. Amin Saikal, The Australian National University, Egypt. The Politics of Change in the Arab Middle East is a forward-looking analysis of the relationship between economic and political reform in Egypt and of the evolving nature of Arab society and political culture both in Egypt and elsewhere. Writing from the perspective of a recently retired ambassador with extensive Arab regional experience, Robert Bowker discusses the potential impact of systemic resistance to pressures for greater transparency, accountability, and political reform amid ongoing demographic, educational, and generational changes. His analysis encompasses the military and security services, the influence of the shadow state, and the impact of social surveillance, coercion, and corruption. Looking ahead, he discusses emerging business models, returning Arab expatriates, the gradual empowerment of women, and the impact of Islam. He considers the political sustainability of economic reform, including the challenges facing marginalized groups. His analysis concludes by reviewing the regional security and political context of reform, the importance of political leadership over the coming decade, and the role of external parties. Compelling, insightful, and thought-provoking, the book provides Avenues of Participation. Diane Singerman, 2020-09-01. Intentionally excluded from formal politics in authoritarian states by reigning elites, do the common people have concrete ways of achieving community objectives? Contrary to conventional wisdom, this book demonstrates that they do. Focusing on the political life of the shah or popular classes in Cairo, Diane Singerman shows how men and women develop creative and effective strategies to accomplish shared goals despite the dominant forces.

ranged against them Starting at the household level in one densely populated neighborhood of Cairo Singerman examines communal patterns of allocation distribution and decision making Combining the institutional focus of political science with the sensitivities of anthropology she uncovers a system of informal networks supported by an informal economy that constitutes another layer of collective institutions within Egypt and allows excluded groups to pursue their interests Avenues of Participation traces this informal system from its grounding in the family to its influence on the larger polity Discussing the role of these networks in meeting fundamental needs in the community such as earning a living reproducing the family saving and investing money and coping with the bureaucracy Singerman demonstrates the surprising power these excluded people wield While the government has reduced politics to the realm of distribution to protect itself from challenges she argues that the popular classes in Cairo as consumers of goods and services have turned exploiting the government into a fine art
