Popped A Fertile Medical Taboo Tale:

Burst of Breath Jonathan David Hill, Jean-Pierre Chaumeil, 2011-12-01 The first in depth comparative and interdisciplinary study of indigenous Amazonian musical cultures Burst of Breath showcases new research on the dynamic range of ritual power and social significance of various wind instruments including flutes trumpets clarinets and whistles played in sacred rituals and ceremonies in Lowland South America The editors provide a detailed overview of the historical significance scientific classification shamanic and cosmological associations and changing social meanings of ritual wind instruments within Amazonian cultures These essays present a wide perspective that goes beyond better documented areas such as the Upper Xingu and northwest Amazon Some of the authors explore the ways ritual wind instruments are used to introduce natural sounds into social contexts and to cross boundaries between verbal and nonverbal communication Others look at how ritual wind instruments and their music enter into local definitions and negotiations of relations between men women kin insiders and outsiders Closely considering these instruments in their many roles and contexts in curing and purification negotiating relations connecting mythic ancestors and humans today this volume reveals the power and complexity of the music at the heart of collective rituals across lowland South America Postfeminist Film & Literary Aesthetics Alyce

Corbett, 2025-05-23 Postfeminist Film Literary Aesthetics In Search of the Female Gaze represents a novel and comprehensive study of the aesthetic and affective textual innovations of women in the 21st century from a postfeminist perspective This book both defines and helps shape the contours of four fast growing critically and commercially popular modes millennial film and fiction metamodernism an anti narrative and decorative realm named here as still life and new cli fi in which there is no clear male equivalent or in which women s work can be read as a distinct aesthetic force As the textual constellation of now is being mapped and its key texts being canonised this book contributes to the current recentring of aesthetic taste that is occurring in literature film and surrounding criticism making greater space for the appreciation of female aesthetics and for future inquiries in this field Kutlwano ,2010 Encyclopedia of Ancient Deities Charles

Russell Coulter, Patricia Turner, 2021-12-06 Throughout history humans have pondered the question of their existence In nearly every society part of the answer has included some form of god or goddess For the Mayans one such deity was Ajtzak who tried to create humans from wood for the Yorubas of Africa Shango controlled the thunder and lightning The Chinese of the Shang dynasty era worshipped Shang Ti Evil deities were also part of the answer as in the case of the Kuvera the Hindu chief of evil in the Vedic period and Tu the Persian or Islamic demon of fatal accidents All of the known ancient gods many heretofore obscure or known only from mythological literature are included in this exhaustive reference work The focus is on their origins histories and functions The people who believed in each deity are identified along with alternate names or spellings both old and modern The descriptions that follow are of the functions origins and physical nature of the deities Extensive cross references are provided for alternate spellings and names The Cambridge Guide to Asian Theatre
