Oxford Successful English D. Paizee,2011 South African national bibliography ,1998 Classified list with author and title index Successful English Grade 1 (Sub A) D. Botha,P. Constable,B.N. Herbert,1997-09-09 Teaching English as a Foreign Language, 1912-1936: Michael West Richard C. Smith,2004-01-15 This collection focuses on the work of the major pioneers working in the 1920s and 1930s whose research and writings laid the methodological foundations for post World War II British approaches to English as a foreign language teaching ELT These early pioneers included Harold E Palmer in Japan Michael West in India and Laurence Faucett in China Separately and jointly at the 1934 5 Carnegie Conference they succeeded in establishing a principled basis for the teaching of English to speakers of other languages different in significant respects from teaching English as a first language in Britain and the Empire Integrating Assessment into Early Language Learning and Teaching Danijela Prošić-Santovac, Shelagh Rixon, 2019-08-07 The volume unites research and practice on integrating language learning teaching and assessment at preschool and early school age It includes chapters written by experts in the field who have studied some of the very youngest pre primary children through to those up to the age of 12 in a variety of private and state contexts across Europe The collection makes a much needed contribution to the subject of appropriate assessment for children with the focus of many chapters being classroom based assessment particularly formative assessment or the case for developing assessment skills in relation to even the youngest children As a whole the book provides useful case study insights for policymakers teacher educators researchers and postgraduate students with interest in or responsibility for how children are assessed in their language learning It also provides practical ideas for practitioners who wish to implement greater integration of assessment and learning in their own contexts

The Politics of English Language Education and Social Inequality Maya Kalyanpur, Padmini Bhuyan Boruah, Sarina Chugani Molina, Sunaina Shenoy, 2022-12-30 Based on policy analysis and empirical data this book examines the problematic consequences of colonial legacies of language policies and English language education in the multilingual contexts of the Global South Using a postcolonial lens the volume explores the raciolinguistics of language hierarchies that results in students from low income backgrounds losing their mother tongues without acquiring academic fluency in English Using findings from five major research projects the book analyzes the specific context of India where ambiguous language policies have led to uneasy tensions between the colonial language of English national and state languages and students linguistic diversity is mistaken for cognitive deficits when English is the medium of instruction in schools The authors situate their own professional and personal experiences in their efforts at dismantling postcolonial structures through reflective practice as teacher educators and present solutions of decolonial resistance to linguistic hierarchies that include critical pedagogical alternatives to bilingual education and opportunities for increased teacher agency Ultimately this timely volume will appeal to researchers scholars academics and students in the fields of international and comparative education English and literacy studies and language arts more broadly Those interested in English language learning in low income countries specifically will also find this book to be of benefit to their research
