Emerging Market Multinationals in Europe

Louis Brennan,Caner Bakir,2016-06-17 This book makes a timely and highly stimulating contribution to the discourse on emerging market multinationals EMNCs as Foreign Direct Investment FDI in Europe from emerging countries especially from the BRICs Brazil Russia India China continues to grow in significance Unsurprisingly the emergence of EMNCs from emerging economies raises a wide range of challenges and opportunities for scholars business professionals and policymakers alike While explaining the sudden rise of these companies has become a major concern among scholars we have very limited knowledge on drivers motivations strategies and impact of these EMNCs in Europe and their policy implications This volume provides fresh insights into EMNCs activities and their impact in Europe The contributors argue that EMNCs combine various country specific advantages existing firm specific advantages exploitation and or new FSAs exploration in their FDI and that there is considerable heterogeneity across EMNCs even those from the same southern economy Highlighting the importance of considering this divergent behaviour when implementing future European FDI policies this book will be of interest to students and scholars of European Politics International Political Economy International Business and European Integration

Marketing in Culturally Distant Countries Giovanna Magnani,2022-06-28 The aim of this book is to offer up to date insights into the challenges for international firms represented by managing their marketing mix in distant countries especially considering the role played by cultural distance Building on the famous McCarthy s 4Ps and on the concept of cultural distance the book outlines some key challenges and opportunities for firms that manage international marketing policies about product price place and promotion in culturally distant markets At the same time the book looks at extant conceptualizations and approaches considering the evolving environmental forces which are contributing to further challenges for firms that are confronted with changing economic and social scenarios Indeed markets and societies are increasingly affected by multiculturalism and new patterns in consumers behaviors have emerged due to the proliferation of digital technologies and more recently due to several market disruptions such as the COVID 19 pandemic How do firms manage culturally distant and increasingly evolving cultural environments is a relevant topic worthy of discussion from both a theoretical perspective and a practice based approach through the analysis of real world case studies Researchers of cross cultural marketing and practitioners intending to get acquainted with the latest research on the topic would particularly benefit from this book

International Retailing Nicholas Alexander,Anne Marie Doherty,2009 International Retailing reflects contemporary research and current practice focusing on what is happening in the field who is making it happen why it is happening in the way it is and how it is happening Structured around four parts this textbook guides students through the internationalization process considering international markets and how retail companies operate within them It concludes by exploring future trends and challenges of the international retail marketplace The text is packed with a wealth of international examples and familiar case studies clearly showing how the theory translated into practice
