Possible Films Dvd Mark Lewis:

Mark Lewis Michael Rush,Philippe-Alain Michaud,Laura Mulvey,2006 Mark Lewis's films are remarkable not only for their rich and highly seductive use of light and color but also for the way in which they pay homage to both classic Hollywood cinema and the avant garde while remaining outside of both traditions Mark Lewis is the first book to explore this acclaimed Canadian's art and it features images from several of his works including his most recent piece Rear Projection This film in particular documents a significant shift in Lewis's practice Actress Molly Parker known for her roles in Six Feet Under and Deadwood is superimposed against the bleak landscape of rural Ontario using the standard Hollywood technique of rear projection Lewis takes what was for old Hollywood a tool meant to convey seamless realism and foregrounds its essential trickery Another piece incorporates the dreary backdrops of concrete council flats in the same way In both settings the film takes on a painterly quality referencing and restaging traditional portraiture to startling effect Accompanied by essays by Philippe Alain Michaud Laura Mulvey and Michael Rush that place Lewis's work next to that of his contemporaries Mark Lewis reaches insightful conclusions about the evolving relationship between film technology painting and photography

The Past is the Present; It's the Future Too Christine Ross,2012-06-28 The term temporality often refers to the traditional mode of the way time is a linear procession of past present and future As philosophers will note this is not always the case Christine Ross builds on current philosophical and theoretical examinations of time and applies them to the field of contemporary art films video installations sculpture and performance works Ross first provides an interdisciplinary overview of contemporary studies on time focusing on findings in philosophy psychology sociology communications history postcolonial studies and ecology She then illustrates how contemporary artistic practices play around with what we consider linear time Engaging the work of artists such as Guido van der Werve Melik Ohanian Harun Farocki and Stan Douglas allows investigation though the art as opposed to having art taking an ancillary role The Past is the Present It's the Future Too forces the reader to understand the complexities of the significance of temporal development in new artistic practices

Halliwel's Film, Video & DVD Guide ,2008 Art in the Cinema Steven Jacobs,Birgit Cleppe,Dimitrios Latsis,2020-10-15 In the 1940s and 1950s hundreds of art documentaries were produced many of them being highly personal poetic reflexive and experimental films that offer a thrilling cinematic experience With the exception of Alain Resnais's Van Gogh 1948 Henri Georges Clouzot's Le Mystère Picasso 1956 and a few others most of them have received only scant scholarly attention This book aims to rectify this situation by discussing the most lyrical experimental and influential post war art documentaries connecting them to contemporaneous museological developments and Euro American cultural and political relationships With contributors with expertise across art history and film studies Art in the Cinema draws attention to film projects by Andr Bazin Ilya Bolotowsky Paul Haesaerts Carlo Ragghianti John Read Dudley Shaw Aston Henri Storck and Willard Van Dyke among others TLA Video & DVD Guide 2004 David Bleiler,2003-10-24 This is the absolutely indispensable guide to worthwhile cinema It includes over 10 000 entries on the best of film and video that a real film lover might actually want to see

Women Artists, Feminism and the Moving Image Lucy Reynolds,2019-08-22 What is the significance of gendered identification in relation to artists moving image How do women artists grapple with the interlinked narratives of gender discrimination and gender identity in their work In this groundbreaking book a diverse range of leading scholars activists archivists and artists explore the histories practices and concerns of women making film and video across the world from the pioneering German animator Lotte Reiniger to the influential African American filmmaker Julie Dash and the provocative Scottish contemporary artist Rachel Maclean Opening with a foreword from the film theorist Laura Mulvey and a poem by the artist film maker Lis Rhodes Women Artists Feminism and the Moving Image traces the legacies of early feminist interventions into the moving image and the ways in which these have been re configured in the very different context of today Reflecting and building upon the practices of recuperation that continue to play a vital role in feminist art practice and scholarship essays discuss topics such as how multiculturalism is linked to experimental and activist film history the function and nature of the essay film feminist curatorial practices and much more This book transports the reader across diverse cultural contexts and geographical contours addressing complex narratives of subjectivity representation and labour while juxtaposing cultures of film video and visual arts practice often held apart As the editor Lucy Reynolds argues it is at the point where art moving image and feminist discourse converge that a rich and dynamic intersection of dialogue and exchange opens up bringing to attention practices which might fall outside their separate spheres and offering fresh perspectives and insights on those already established in its histories and canons
