The Thousand Generation Covenant: Dutch Reformed Covenant Theology and Group Identity in Colonial South Africa, 1652-1814 Gerstner, 2021-12-06

This study presents the religious factor in the development of a separatistic group identity among the forebears of the Afrikaners during the Dutch colonial period of South African history Dutch Reformed covenant theology and baptism practice rooted in the thousand generation covenant theory helped to shape this self understanding It traces the basic developments of covenant theology in the Netherlands during the period and demonstrates how these concepts were conveyed to colonial South Africa The dominant strain of covenantal thought treated the entire community as redeemed and called to be separate It was presented through a variety of means through which virtually every colonist was exposed This study offers a balanced historical approach to the role of theological concepts in the colonial roots of Afrikaner group identity It answers traditional scholarship in the field which either directly identify the concepts behind the development of apartheid with Calvinist theology or more recently deny that the Reformed faith had any role in the development of apartheid ideology until the twentieth century

Greenhouses of Hope Dorie Grinenko Baker, 2010-11-12 Do you know a church where young people regularly shape the liturgy with words that speak their truth in ways that also inspire their elders Do you hear about congregations that reach out in quirky new ways to their ailing neighborhoods instead of locking doors and shipping out to a suburb Do you find churches creating hospitable space that invites the live wriggling questions and doubts of young people in unhurried unworried ways Do you see congregations where young people s gifts are not stored in the basement or bracketed into contemporary worship services but are brought forth and celebrated The authors who collaborated on this book launched a quest for such vibrant life giving greening congregations and observed the diverse practices that grow there They named these churches Greenhouses of Hope A Greenhouse of Hope is a Christian congregation freeing itself to experiment with both newly imagined and time honored ways of following the path of Jesus Its members respond to God s love through practices that genuinely embrace the gifts of youth and young adults Out of these greenhouses emerge young leaders who want to change the world In Greenhouses of Hope Dori Baker and six contributors tell the stories of these remarkable congregations helping others think about how they can create space for the dreams of young people to be grafted into God's dreams for the world Common Worship Church of England, 2000 The Common Worship Main Volume is the primary worship and service book for the Church of England It contains material used on Sundays by most churches a variety of Communion services and non eucharistic forms of worship as well as the basic Baptism service and the Psalms Full contents The Declaration of Assent The Calendar A Service of the Word Morning and Evening Prayer on Sunday Morning and Evening Prayer from the Book of Common Prayer Night Prayer Compline Night Prayer Compline in Traditional Language Prayers for Various Occasions The Litany The Litany from the Book of Common Prayer Authorized Forms of Confession and Absolution Creeds and Authorized Affirmations of Faith Holy Communion including A Form of Preparation Order One Order One in Traditional Language Order Two Order Two in Contemporary Language Supplementary Texts Seasonal Provisions Thanksgiving for the Gift of a Child Holy Baptism Collects and Post Communions Collects and Post Communions in Traditional Language Rules Lectionary The Psalter Canticles

Graves, 1999-12-08 In Lighting the Shakespearean Stage 1567-1642 R B Graves examines the lighting of early modern English drama from both historical and aesthetic perspectives. He traces the contrasting traditions of sunlit amphitheaters and candlelit hall playhouses, describes the different lighting techniques, and estimates the effect of these techniques both indoors and outdoors. Graves discusses the importance of stage lighting in determining the dramatic effect, even in cases where the manipulation of light was not under the direct control of the theater artists. He devotes a chapter to the early modern lighting equipment available to English Renaissance actors and surveys theatrical lighting before the construction of permanent playhouses in London. Elizabethan stage lighting, he argues, drew on both classical and medieval precedents.
